Colonial Gardens Ready in May, Davis Says, as Dewey Closes All Temporary Housing

A state measure closing temporary veterans housing will not leave Kingston wanting, local sources indicated today.

Gov. Dewey today signed an administration measure that will shut down this year the state's $70,000,000 temporary housing program for World War 2 veterans and their families.

The city will be ready for this through opening of Colonial Gardens, the state-sponsored housing project in the Flatbush avenue area, probably in May.

Arthur A. Davis, Jr., chairman of the local housing authority, said this morning that applicants for apartments in the new project are now being interviewed. The development will house nearly 100 families.

Can't Live There

Recent Common Council action accepted from the state the Loughran Park land which has been used for temporary veterans' housing. It may be used for any purpose the city sees fit except for dwelling purposes.

The Associated Press noted that the governor, in his annual message, said the temporary facilities were "increasingly unsuitable and unsafe dwellings, many of them wooden barracks."

Laws Calls for Disposal

Dewey noted that 26 of the 93 projects had been transferred to 13 cities and that seven others had been closed or turned over to the Defense Department. The low-rent housing program was begun in 1945.

The new law, sponsored by Republican Assemblyman Anthony P. Savarese, Jr. of Queens, requires that all units not turned over to localities or to the Federal Government by Sept. 30 be removed or disposed of by Dec. 31.

The State Housing Commissioner may extend the Sept. 30 deadline 60 days on projects he considers necessary in the public interest.

Dewey vetoed a bill that would have required municipalities, except New York city, to furnish each employe a statement of deductions made in each salary of wage check after July 1, 1954.

The governor agreed with the State Comptroller's office that the proposal would "result in undue hardship, since it will require the installation of much new and expensive equipment."

But Dewey said in a memorandum that he thought employes should be given such statements "at proper intervals" and urged municipalities to do so.

Vetoes Defroster Measure

The Governor also vetoed a measure that would have required every motor vehicle manufactured after Jan. 1, 1956, and registered in New York, to be equipped with a windshield defroster approved by the State Motor Vehicle Commissioner.

The Automobile Manufacturers Association wrote Dewey that all new cars sold in the northern states already were equipped with such devices, and that approval of the bill would force the commissioner to set up costly testing equipment. The bill was introduced by Republican Sen. Carlo A. Lanzillotti of Long Island City.

Other Bills Approved

Dewey approved other bills that:

Prohibit begging, peddling or loitering at air and bus terminals. Persons convicted would be subject to a maximum fine of $10 or 30 days in jail, or both. (Assemblyman Malcolm Wilson, R-Westchester).

Continue for another year, until March 31, 1954, the state program for control of rabies. Under it, the state pays half of any county's anti-rabies program, to a maximum of $6,000 each.

Port Ewen Turns Down $46,000 Issue For New Firehouse

Commissioners Can't Sell Present Site and Face Housing Problem for New Pumper

Residents of the Port Ewen fire district in the town of Esopus on Wednesday turned down a proposal to issue $46,000 in bonds to construct a new firehouse.

The vote on Proposition I, to authorize the bond issue, was 141 against and 69 in favor. A second proposition, which would have authorized the fire commissioners to sell the present firehouse and apply the proceeds against the bond issue, was defeated by a vote of 129 to 76. There were also five blank ballots and 10 declared void.

The defeat of the proposal leaves the fire commissioners faced with the problem of housing the district's new Ward-LaFrance fire truck. The present firehouse is too small for the combination ladder truck and pumper, which is at present being housed in a barn.

Rains Bring About Esopus Flood Scare

Creek Residents Keep Night Vigil; Spillway Becomes Falls

Spring rains brought the threat of a flood along the Esopus creek last night and early today, but the rise apparently steadied itself short of flood stage.

Residents along the creek banks kept an anxious watch during the night, and several telephone inquiries as to the possibility of flooding were received at the sheriff's office. No reports of actual flooding were received, however.

Rainfall in the 24-hour period which ended at 8 a. m. today was recorded at .77 inch at Brown Station, Ashokan Reservoir, by the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity. In the preceding 24-hour period, a total of 1.62 inches was measured at the same location.

Spillway Becomes Falls

Calculations made this morning showed that water was running over the Ashokan Reservoir spillway at the rate of 2,300,000,000 gallons a day.

In the upper Esopus creek, the peak was reached at 3 a. m. today, when the gauge reading at Cold Brook was 9.43 feet. By 8 a. m., it had dropped to 8.65 feet. Flood stage at that point is about 11 feet.

A sharp lightning storm broke over the area shortly after 9 p. m. Wednesday but was of short duration and no reports of damage were received.

State to Take Land For Bridge Approach

Port Jervis Gets Branch Factory For Prefab Homes

Concern Will Employ 60 at Start, May Jump to 100; $200,000 Payroll Seen

The Modern Home Corporation of Dearborn, Mich., manufacturers of prefabricated homes, will lease the former Erie car repair shop at Port Jervis for its eastern operations, it was announced today through the regional office here of the New York State Department of Commerce.

The official announcement was made by Robert J. Lytle, founder and president of Modern Homes. He said the Port Jervis division will be known as Eastern Modern Homes Corporation and is expected to be in operation within 60 days. The firm plans to take possession April 1.

$200,000 Annual Payroll

Present plans, according to Lytle, call for a production schedule of five homes per eight-hour shift, which will require initial employment of 60, with an estimated annual payroll of $200,000. There will be a possible increase of employment to 100, he said.

The plant will serve New York, New England and the Middle Atlantic states as far south as Washington, D. C. Port Jervis was selected after the firm viewed many sites in this state, and Lytle in his announcement mentioned the Industrial Committee of the Port Jervis Chamber of Commerce "for its consideration and for the welcome offered us as newcomers to the community," and the State Department of Commerce, "which devoted considerable energy to convince us of the advantages of a New York site . . . and for its patience in showing us many sites in the state in an effort to meet our needs."

Group Is Commended

In a statement prepared by Harold Keller, commissioner of the Department of Commerce, in connection with the release of the news that the corporation will lease a Port Jervis site, Keller commended the Industrial Committee of the Port Jervis Chamber "for its efforts in bringing about the location of this new industry in the community." He said the committee members "demonstrated an unusual degree of teamwork aand cooperation" and rendered a valuable service to the people of the area.

Holland Party Home

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, Jack Feye and Harry Rigby, Jr., who were guests at a luncheon and reception in the Dutch Embassy at Washington, D. C., Tuesday, returned home last night. They and about 70 other persons from various parts of the nation were honored by Prince Bernhardt of the Netherlands and J. H. van Roijen, Dutch Ambassador to the U. S., and his wife and other prominent men and officials of Holland for their part in raising funds for victims of the recent disasterous floods in that nation. They attended the luncheon at noon in the Embassy and at 2 p. m., each of the visiting group met Prince Bernhardt.

Civil Service Exams

The U. S. Civil Service Commission today announced an urgent need for chemists, engineers, physicists, electronic scientists, metallurgists and mathematicians for federal jobs in defense agencies in New York and New Jersey. The jobs pay from $3,410 to $4,205 per annum. Further information may be obtained at any first or second-class post office.

Will Advertise for Bids Soon; Beacon Span Will Come After Local Link

The New York State Bridge Authority yesterday took action that could mean an early start on construction of the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge over the Hudson.

It approved plans, requested advertising for bids and provided for the taking of lands to start the westerly approach.

The authority also approved a bill recently passed in the state legislature favoring construction of a bridge between Newburgh and Beacon, and recommended that Gov. Dewey sign it. Work on this is not to start until the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge is completed.

All officers of the authority were reelected at its annual meeting. They were James F. Loughran, of this city, chairman, Dr. John L. Edwards, of Hudson, vice-chairman, and William K. Hagginbothom, of Catskill, secretary.

Plans Approved

A resolution offered by Harry Cohen, of Newburgh, newest member of the authority, and seconded by Neal Brandow, of Coxsackie said in effect:

Since the authority "did authorize the preparation of the survey and plans showing in detail the construction of a proposed bridge spanning the Hudson river at a point approximately three and one-half miles northerly from the mouth of the Rondout creek, such alignment having been approved by the Superintendent, New York State Department of Public Works, and:

"Whereas, the authority did contract with D. B. Steinman, consulting engineer, 117 Liberty street, New York city, for the preparation of such plans, and the same having been filed and approved by this authority, and:

"Whereas, in accordance with Section 529 of the Public Authorities Law the authority had prepared a survey with maps showing the necessary land takings on the westerly approach to the proposed Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge;

"Now, therefore be it resolved, that such plans as prepared and submitted by D. B. Steinman, consulting engineer, and the alignment and taking of maps of such westerly approach to the proposed bridge are hereby approved."

Action Calls for Construction

A resolution offered by Dr. Edwards and seconded by Harry Cohen, said that since the authority had approved plans, estimate and specifications governing the construction of the westerly approach to the bridge;

"Be it resolved that the superintendent of the New York State Department of Public Works, be and he hereby is requested to take all steps necessary for the submission to the public calling for bids and the awarding of a contract together with the engineering features connected with the construction of the westerly approach in accordance with plans to be approved by said department, and moved its adoption."

Ask Funds for Approach Lands

A resolution offered by Neal Brandow and seconded by Dr. Edwards said that since the authority, under direction of its chairman, surveyed and indicated by maps the lands required for the westerly approach, that funds be

Henry Gleich, of West Hurley, reported a daylight theft of gas to the police at 1:52 p. m., yesterday. He said the tank of his car was drained while it was parked on Lucas avenue between Washington avenue and Green street, sometime between 11:30 a. m., and the time of the report.

Death Cue For Duke To Return

Let Mourning End Exile Press Declares; View Is Duchess Would Be Welcome With Him

London, March 26 (AP)—As Britain prepared to bury its beloved Queen Mary, Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express said today the death of the regal matriarch is a cue for her eldest son, the Duke of Windsor, to return to England to live.

"Let the mourning end his exile," declared the heading over an Express editorial. The newspaper did not mention the Duke's American-born Duchess, the former Wallis Warfield Simpson, but presumably it favors her returning with her husband.

Windsor is now in England, having cut short a Florida vacation to rush to his mother's bedside when her fatal illness was first announced. The Duchess remained in New York. She has never been received at the British Royal Court since the Duke gave up the throne 16 years ago to marry her. Most observers consider Queen Mary—a stickler for conventions—at the bottom of the boycott.

In a moving tribute to the queen grandmother, who died Tuesday night at 85, Prime Minister Churchill declared she "was loved and revered far and wide, as perhaps nobody has been since Queen Victoria."

"Queen Mary will long live mellow and gracious in all our memories and in the annals of these tumultuous times," the 78-year-old government chief said in a broadcast last night to the British Commonwealth. The address, heard also in the United States, termed her "this last great link with Queen Victoria's reign."

To Be Buried in Chapel

The old queen will be buried at a private service in beautiful St. George's chapel at Windsor Castle, the final resting place of British kings and queens since Tudor times. Her body will be placed in a tomb on the south aisle of the chapel beside that of her husband, King George V.

Before the service the body will lie in state in historic Westminster Hall adjoining the House of Parliament. It will be placed on the same purple catafalque that only 13 months ago held the coffin of her son, King George VI.

Queen Mary will be the first royal consort of modern times to lie in state at the hall. For hundreds of years, the aged building—famous for its 700-year-old hand-carved, hammer-beam oak roof—has been reserved for such homage to reigning monarchs only.

Procession on Sunday

Her body will be taken to the hall Sunday in procession from the chapel in the grounds of her London home, Marlborough House.

Plans for the funeral were announced last night by the Earl of Scarborough, the lord chamberlain. At the same time, he disclosed that young Queen Elizabeth had ordered court mourning only until April 25. No order was issued for public mourning.

Thus the mourning period will be over well in advance of coronation day and arrangements for that ceremony will remain unchanged—in accordance with the queen grandmother's wishes.

Kraft Not Affected By Move Canceling 1,400 Postal Exams

Local Postmaster Has Civil Service Status, Can't Be Removed by Politics

The canceling of more than 1,400 examinations for jobs as postmasters and the consequent holding of examinations to establish new eligible lists, will not affect the postmastership in Kingston where Postmaster William R. Kraft holds a permanent appointment under civil service, he said today.

The Eisenhower administration has canceled some 1,400 examinations for jobs, and on the avowed aim of establishing "higher standards of eligibility" new examinations to be held will require a higher passing grade.

Under the existing rule when a post office becomes vacant an acting postmaster is appointed by the postmaster general. Then a competitive examination is held six months later and an eligible list is thus established. The acting postmaster is given certain credit for his experience. As a result of the examination an eligible list of three names is certified and an appointment is made from the three successful candidates.

Few Republicans Took Exams

It is these eligible lists which have been canceled out under the new order. It is admitted the lists contain mostly Democrats since few Republicans took the examinations, knowing that with a Democratic administration in Washington they stood little chance of appointment if one of the other of the three successful candidates was a Democrat.

Kraft was appointed postmaster at Kingston in 1935 and in 1939 took the civil service examination, passing number one on the list. He was then given permanent appointment as postmaster of Kingston under civil service.

Opponents Feel He Was Too Close to Policies Repudiated, but See His Confirmation

Washington, March 26 (AP)—The Senate took time out today in the Eisenhower administration's first open foreign policy fight with Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) centering on Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen's nomination to be ambassador to Russia.

Tempers flared angrily during yesterday's debate. Senate Republican Leader Taft (Ohio) and Senate GOP Policy Chairman Knowland (Calif.) united to champion President Eisenhower's appointee.

McCarthy and Sen. Bridges (R.-N. H.), co-leaders of the fight on Bohlen, conceded his confirmation by a big majority when the Senate votes. A vote is likely tomorrow; the Senate is in recess today.

Bohlen's opponents have raised questions about his security and have said he was intimately linked with Democratic foreign policies which, they contend, were repudiated in the 1952 elections.

The controversy reached its peak when Knowland, his face flashing anger and resentment, challenged what he interpreted as a reflection by McCarthy on his truthfulness.

Is Specialist on Russia

The question was raised whether former Ambassador Hugh Gibson had joined ex-Ambassadors Joseph C. Grew and Norman Armour in recommending assignment to Moscow of the 48-year-old Bohlen, a veteran foreign service officer and Russian specialist.

Sen. Dirksen (R.-Ill.) said Gibson had told him by telephone he had made no recommendation on Bohlen, as reported by Secretary of State Dulles to the Foreign Relations Committee.

Knowland then produced what he said was a Jan. 29 memorandum to Dulles signed in ink with the names of Gibson, Grew and Armour.

This memorandum referred to an attached list of recommendations for diplomatic posts, Knowland declared, and added that an inspection of the list showed that next to Russia was the name of Bohlen.

Knowland said he was not at liberty to read the entire document.

While Democrats chuckled, McCarthy brought Knowland to his feet again by suggesting that Dirksen be allowed to see the letter since he was a "good security risk."

Free to See Letter

The Californian furiously announced he had "not misrepresented the facts," and added that if McCarthy thought it was necessary for Dirksen "to verify what I told the Senate," Dirksen was free to see the letter.

"There's no need to get excited," McCarthy declared. "No doubt you told us the truth."

Dirksen interposed he had "the utmost faith and confidence" in Knowland, but added, "we have all the aspects of a mystery thriller here." He said it was "a matter of transcendent importance" that "ought to be resolved."

The exchange ended with McCarthy insisting that Knowland should clear up Gibson's stand. An atorney for Gibson said the former ambassador would have no immediate statement.

2 Nations Will Trade Vital Goods

Russia Will Help Ally's Industry and Farmers to Gain Supplies It Needs Badly

Moscow, March 26 (AP)—The Soviets today charted a big new aid program for Communist China to boost their Red ally's heavy industry. In return, the Peiping government will send raw materials to Russia.

Moscow papers announced that a new agreement and two protocols covering the program were signed here recently in the presence of Chinese Premier-Foreign Minister Chou En-lai. He came to Moscow early this month as head of the Chinese delegation to the funeral of the late Joseph Stalin.

Generous Offer

Russia promised to help increase China's electric power capacity by expanding existing power plants and building new ones. Other assistance will be provided in equipping Chinese metallurgical, mining, machinery, chemical, transport and other industries.

The Soviet Union also will supply China with agricultural machinery, pedigreed cattle and seeds.

As her part of the bargain, China will ship here light metals, rice, vegetable oils, meat, oil seeds, tobacco, tea, fruit, wool, jute, raw silk, silk textiles, leather and other goods.

New Ambassador Named

The documents—first such under the new regime of Prime Minister Georgi M. Malenkov—appeared to western diplomatic observers here as an indication that the new Kremlin administration aims to do everything possible to assist Communist China. These sources noted also that Malenkov's first act after he became premier three weeks ago was to appoint one of the country's ranking diplomats, Vasili Kuznetsov, as new ambassador to Peiping.

Negotiations resulting in the new Soviet aid program for China were begun last August, when Chou arrived in Moscow with a big government delegation for talks with Stalin and other top leaders. The first resulting agreement, signed in September, prolonged Russia's expiring lease on Port Arthur in Manchuria until the two countries sign peace treaties with Japan.

Vishinsky Awaited With Kremlin Sign

United Nations, March 26 (AP)—Andrei Y. Vishinski, returning to the United Nations, today from Moscow, faced a new western challenge to bring a Kremlin sign that it really is ready to negotiate for peace and an end to the cold war.

The Soviet spokesman was aboard the liner Queen Mary, due to dock in New York this afternoon (2:30 p. m.).

Anxious UN diplomats awaited Vishinsky's return from talks with the new Malenkov regime with dim but determined hope that he may introduce some tangible shift in Soviet world policy to clear the air of East-West blasts that have intensified in the 60-nation political committee in the past few days.

Britain in Black

Motorists Are Warned About Tougher Law Enforcement

New York, March 26 (AP)—New York state motorists have been cautioned by Motor Vehicle Commissioner James R. MacDuff that they face "tighter, tougher enforcement of traffic laws and regulations."

This will come, he says, as a result of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's highway safety program.

MacDuff issued the warning yesterday in addressing 350 safety engineers and commercial vehicle operators at a meeting in connection with the convention of the Greater New York Safety Council.

Reviewing features of the safety program, MacDuff said he would act on a legislative measure for "fix-proof" traffic tickets within 30 days after the governor signs it. The bill provides for conferences of the commissioner and police and other local enforcement agencies before adoption of a uniform procedure against fixing tickets. One conference will be held here and one at Albany.

MacDuff said the statewide system of "fix-proof" tickets would apply to all motorists. He said "the fixed ticket undermines public respect for our laws, destroys police morale and breeds further lawlessness."

The commissioner reported that his bureau has been stepping up driver license revocation and suspension "because we feel that is one of the strongest enforcement weapons to which the state has access." Last year, he added, the total of revocations and suspensions for all causes reached a record 158,502. "I can assure you that very few of those persons have had their driving privileges returned to them," he said.

Bohlen Relative Resigns His Consul Job as Probe Ordered

Munich, Germany, March 26 (AP)—The U. S. consulate here announced today that Charles W. Thayer, American consul general in Munich and brother-in-law of Charles "Chip" Bohlen, has resigned from the foreign service after a new investigation into his diplomatic career was ordered.

A 1933 graduate of West Point and a paratroop lieutenant colonel in World War 2, the 43-year-old Thayer plans to devote his full time to writing, the consulate press office announced. He is the author of books on his experiences as a diplomat in pre-war Moscow and post-war Belgrade.

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) told the Senate yesterday that Thayer had been ordered home "and is, I understand, to be discharged." Although McCarthy gave no reason he said Thayer's activities when he was head of the Voice of America are "well known to the Senate."

At the State Department, however, department press officer Lincoln White said Thayer has resigned because he wanted to give his full time to writing. White said he did not know whether the resignation had been requested.

Thayer was not available for comment but the press office here said his resignation was voluntary. It said the State Department had ordered the new investigation despite the fact that Thayer had been cleared for the Munich post only last April.

"Under these circumstances, Mr. Thayer voluntarily submitted his resignation," the office reported.

A close friend of the former diplomat here said:

"Just the other day, he heard that there were demands by the McCarthy crowd for a reopening of his entire case and a public review of it. I guess he decided the job wasn't worth being smeared."

Will Advertise for Bids Soon; Beacon Span Will Come After Local Link

The New York State Bridge Authority yesterday took action that could mean an early start on construction of the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge over the Hudson.

It approved plans, requested advertising for bids and provided for the taking of lands to start the westerly approach.

The authority also approved a bill recently passed in the state legislature favoring construction of a bridge between Newburgh and Beacon, and recommended that Gov. Dewey sign it. Work on this is not to start until the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge is completed.

All officers of the authority were reelected at its annual meeting. They were James F. Loughran, of this city, chairman, Dr. John L. Edwards, of Hudson, vice-chairman, and William K. Hagginbothom, of Catskill, secretary.

Plans Approved

A resolution offered by Harry Cohen, of Newburgh, newest member of the authority, and seconded by Neal Brandow, of Coxsackie said in effect:

Since the authority "did authorize the preparation of the survey and plans showing in detail the construction of a proposed bridge spanning the Hudson river at a point approximately three and one-half miles northerly from the mouth of the Rondout creek, such alignment having been approved by the Superintendent, New York State Department of Public Works, and:

"Whereas, the authority did contract with D. B. Steinman, consulting engineer, 117 Liberty street, New York city, for the preparation of such plans, and the same having been filed and approved by this authority, and:

"Whereas, in accordance with Section 529 of the Public Authorities Law the authority had prepared a survey with maps showing the necessary land takings on the westerly approach to the proposed Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge;

"Now, therefore be it resolved, that such plans as prepared and submitted by D. B. Steinman, consulting engineer, and the alignment and taking of maps of such westerly approach to the proposed bridge are hereby approved."

Action Calls for Construction

A resolution offered by Dr. Edwards and seconded by Harry Cohen, said that since the authority had approved plans, estimate and specifications governing the construction of the westerly approach to the bridge;

"Be it resolved that the superintendent of the New York State Department of Public Works, be and he hereby is requested to take all steps necessary for the submission to the public calling for bids and the awarding of a contract together with the engineering features connected with the construction of the westerly approach in accordance with plans to be approved by said department, and moved its adoption."

Ask Funds for Approach Lands

A resolution offered by Neal Brandow and seconded by Dr. Edwards said that since the authority, under direction of its chairman, surveyed and indicated by maps the lands required for the westerly approach, that funds be

Loses Gas in Daylight

Henry Gleich, of West Hurley, reported a daylight theft of gas to the police at 1:52 p. m., yesterday. He said the tank of his car was drained while it was parked on Lucas avenue between Washington avenue and Green street, sometime between 11:30 a. m., and the time of the report.

Death Cue For Duke To Return

Let Mourning End Exile Press Declares; View Is Duchess Would Be Welcome With Him

London, March 26 (AP)—As Britain prepared to bury its beloved Queen Mary, Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express said today the death of the regal matriarch is a cue for her eldest son, the Duke of Windsor, to return to England to live.

"Let the mourning end his exile," declared the heading over an Express editorial. The newspaper did not mention the Duke's American-born Duchess, the former Wallis Warfield Simpson, but presumably it favors her returning with her husband.

Windsor is now in England, having cut short a Florida vacation to rush to his mother's bedside when her fatal illness was first announced. The Duchess remained in New York. She has never been received at the British Royal Court since the Duke gave up the throne 16 years ago to marry her. Most observers consider Queen Mary—a stickler for conventions—at the bottom of the boycott.

In a moving tribute to the queen grandmother, who died Tuesday night at 85, Prime Minister Churchill declared she "was loved and revered far and wide, as perhaps nobody has been since Queen Victoria."

"Queen Mary will long live mellow and gracious in all our memories and in the annals of these tumultuous times," the 78-year-old government chief said in a broadcast last night to the British Commonwealth. The address, heard also in the United States, termed her "this last great link with Queen Victoria's reign."

To Be Buried in Chapel

The old queen will be buried at a private service in beautiful St. George's chapel at Windsor Castle, the final resting place of British kings and queens since Tudor times. Her body will be placed in a tomb on the south aisle of the chapel beside that of her husband, King George V.

Before the service the body will lie in state in historic Westminster Hall adjoining the House of Parliament. It will be placed on the same purple catafalque that only 13 months ago held the coffin of her son, King George VI.

Queen Mary will be the first royal consort of modern times to lie in state at the hall. For hundreds of years, the aged building—famous for its 700-year-old hand-carved, hammer-beam oak roof—has been reserved for such homage to reigning monarchs only.

Procession on Sunday

Her body will be taken to the hall Sunday in procession from the chapel in the grounds of her London home, Marlborough House.

Plans for the funeral were announced last night by the Earl of Scarborough, the lord chamberlain. At the same time, he disclosed that young Queen Elizabeth had ordered court mourning only until April 25. No order was issued for public mourning.

Thus the mourning period will be over well in advance of coronation day and arrangements for that ceremony will remain unchanged—in accordance with the queen grandmother's wishes.

Kraft Not Affected By Move Canceling 1,400 Postal Exams

Local Postmaster Has Civil Service Status, Can't Be Removed by Politics

The canceling of more than 1,400 examinations for jobs as postmasters and the consequent holding of examinations to establish new eligible lists, will not affect the postmastership in Kingston where Postmaster William R. Kraft holds a permanent appointment under civil service, he said today.

The Eisenhower administration has canceled some 1,400 examinations for jobs, and on the avowed aim of establishing "higher standards of eligibility" new examinations to be held will require a higher passing grade.

Under the existing rule when a post office becomes vacant an acting postmaster is appointed by the postmaster general. Then a competitive examination is held six months later and an eligible list is thus established. The acting postmaster is given certain credit for his experience. As a result of the examination an eligible list of three names is certified and an appointment is made from the three successful candidates.

Few Republicans Took Exams

It is these eligible lists which have been canceled out under the new order. It is admitted the lists contain mostly Democrats since few Republicans took the examinations, knowing that with a Democratic administration in Washington they stood little chance of appointment if one of the other of the three successful candidates was a Democrat.

Kraft was appointed postmaster at Kingston in 1935 and in 1939 took the civil service examination, passing number one on the list. He was then given permanent appointment as postmaster of Kingston under civil service.

Opponents Feel He Was Too Close to Policies Repudiated, but See His Confirmation

Washington, March 26 (AP)—The Senate took time out today in the Eisenhower administration's first open foreign policy fight with Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) centering on Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen's nomination to be ambassador to Russia.

Tempers flared angrily during yesterday's debate. Senate Republican Leader Taft (Ohio) and Senate GOP Policy Chairman Knowland (Calif.) united to champion President Eisenhower's appointee.

McCarthy and Sen. Bridges (R.-N. H.), co-leaders of the fight on Bohlen, conceded his confirmation by a big majority when the Senate votes. A vote is likely tomorrow; the Senate is in recess today.

Bohlen's opponents have raised questions about his security and have said he was intimately linked with Democratic foreign policies which, they contend, were repudiated in the 1952 elections.

The controversy reached its peak when Knowland, his face flashing anger and resentment, challenged what he interpreted as a reflection by McCarthy on his truthfulness.

Is Specialist on Russia

The question was raised whether former Ambassador Hugh Gibson had joined ex-Ambassadors Joseph C. Grew and Norman Armour in recommending assignment to Moscow of the 48-year-old Bohlen, a veteran foreign service officer and Russian specialist.

Sen. Dirksen (R.-Ill.) said Gibson had told him by telephone he had made no recommendation on Bohlen, as reported by Secretary of State Dulles to the Foreign Relations Committee.

Knowland then produced what he said was a Jan. 29 memorandum to Dulles signed in ink with the names of Gibson, Grew and Armour.

This memorandum referred to an attached list of recommendations for diplomatic posts, Knowland declared, and added that an inspection of the list showed that next to Russia was the name of Bohlen.

Knowland said he was not at liberty to read the entire document.

While Democrats chuckled, McCarthy brought Knowland to his feet again by suggesting that Dirksen be allowed to see the letter since he was a "good security risk."

Free to See Letter

The Californian furiously announced he had "not misrepresented the facts," and added that if McCarthy thought it was necessary for Dirksen "to verify what I told the Senate," Dirksen was free to see the letter.

"There's no need to get excited," McCarthy declared. "No doubt you told us the truth."

Dirksen interposed he had "the utmost faith and confidence" in Knowland, but added, "we have all the aspects of a mystery thriller here." He said it was "a matter of transcendent importance" that "ought to be resolved."

The exchange ended with McCarthy insisting that Knowland should clear up Gibson's stand. An atorney for Gibson said the former ambassador would have no immediate statement.

2 Nations Will Trade Vital Goods

Russia Will Help Ally's Industry and Farmers to Gain Supplies It Needs Badly

Moscow, March 26 (AP)—The Soviets today charted a big new aid program for Communist China to boost their Red ally's heavy industry. In return, the Peiping government will send raw materials to Russia.

Moscow papers announced that a new agreement and two protocols covering the program were signed here recently in the presence of Chinese Premier-Foreign Minister Chou En-lai. He came to Moscow early this month as head of the Chinese delegation to the funeral of the late Joseph Stalin.

Generous Offer

Russia promised to help increase China's electric power capacity by expanding existing power plants and building new ones. Other assistance will be provided in equipping Chinese metallurgical, mining, machinery, chemical, transport and other industries.

The Soviet Union also will supply China with agricultural machinery, pedigreed cattle and seeds.

As her part of the bargain, China will ship here light metals, rice, vegetable oils, meat, oil seeds, tobacco, tea, fruit, wool, jute, raw silk, silk textiles, leather and other goods.

New Ambassador Named

The documents—first such under the new regime of Prime Minister Georgi M. Malenkov—appeared to western diplomatic observers here as an indication that the new Kremlin administration aims to do everything possible to assist Communist China. These sources noted also that Malenkov's first act after he became premier three weeks ago was to appoint one of the country's ranking diplomats, Vasili Kuznetsov, as new ambassador to Peiping.

Negotiations resulting in the new Soviet aid program for China were begun last August, when Chou arrived in Moscow with a big government delegation for talks with Stalin and other top leaders. The first resulting agreement, signed in September, prolonged Russia's expiring lease on Port Arthur in Manchuria until the two countries sign peace treaties with Japan.

Vishinsky Awaited With Kremlin Sign

United Nations, March 26 (AP)—Andrei Y. Vishinski, returning to the United Nations, today from Moscow, faced a new western challenge to bring a Kremlin sign that it really is ready to negotiate for peace and an end to the cold war.

The Soviet spokesman was aboard the liner Queen Mary, due to dock in New York this afternoon (2:30 p. m.).

Anxious UN diplomats awaited Vishinsky's return from talks with the new Malenkov regime with dim but determined hope that he may introduce some tangible shift in Soviet world policy to clear the air of East-West blasts that have intensified in the 60-nation political committee in the past few days.

Motorists Are Warned About Tougher Law Enforcement

New York, March 26 (AP)—New York state motorists have been cautioned by Motor Vehicle Commissioner James R. MacDuff that they face "tighter, tougher enforcement of traffic laws and regulations."

This will come, he says, as a result of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's highway safety program.

MacDuff issued the warning yesterday in addressing 350 safety engineers and commercial vehicle operators at a meeting in connection with the convention of the Greater New York Safety Council.

Reviewing features of the safety program, MacDuff said he would act on a legislative measure for "fix-proof" traffic tickets within 30 days after the governor signs it. The bill provides for conferences of the commissioner and police and other local enforcement agencies before adoption of a uniform procedure against fixing tickets. One conference will be held here and one at Albany.

MacDuff said the statewide system of "fix-proof" tickets would apply to all motorists. He said "the fixed ticket undermines public respect for our laws, destroys police morale and breeds further lawlessness."

The commissioner reported that his bureau has been stepping up driver license revocation and suspension "because we feel that is one of the strongest enforcement weapons to which the state has access." Last year, he added, the total of revocations and suspensions for all causes reached a record 158,502. "I can assure you that very few of those persons have had their driving privileges returned to them," he said.

Bohlen Relative Resigns His Consul Job as Probe Ordered

Munich, Germany, March 26 (AP)—The U. S. consulate here announced today that Charles W. Thayer, American consul general in Munich and brother-in-law of Charles "Chip" Bohlen, has resigned from the foreign service after a new investigation into his diplomatic career was ordered.

A 1933 graduate of West Point and a paratroop lieutenant colonel in World War 2, the 43-year-old Thayer plans to devote his full time to writing, the consulate press office announced. He is the author of books on his experiences as a diplomat in pre-war Moscow and post-war Belgrade.

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) told the Senate yesterday that Thayer had been ordered home "and is, I understand, to be discharged." Although McCarthy gave no reason he said Thayer's activities when he was head of the Voice of America are "well known to the Senate."

At the State Department, however, department press officer Lincoln White said Thayer has resigned because he wanted to give his full time to writing. White said he did not know whether the resignation had been requested.

Thayer was not available for comment but the press office here said his resignation was voluntary. It said the State Department had ordered the new investigation despite the fact that Thayer had been cleared for the Munich post only last April.

"Under these circumstances, Mr. Thayer voluntarily submitted his resignation," the office reported.

A close friend of the former diplomat here said:

"Just the other day, he heard that there were demands by the McCarthy crowd for a reopening of his entire case and a public review of it. I guess he decided the job wasn't worth being smeared."

Half Millionth State Income Tax Return Is Filed

The State Tax Commission today announced the filing of the 500,000th state income tax return for 1952—but said that left at least four million returns still to be filed before the April 15 due date.

"That means only one out of nine individuals has filed thus far," said Tax Commission President Spencer E. Bates.

State income tax returns must be filed by single persons who had net income of $1,000 or more last year and by married couples who had net income of $2,500 or more. Net income means gross income after deductions but before taking your exemption.

A return is due, also, if your gross income was $5,000 or more, regardless of the amount of your net income.

Commissioner Bates reminded taxpayers of two important new amendments applying on returns for 1952:

1—A "head of family"—not to be confused with a married person—no longer gets the $400 dependency credit for his first dependent. (A head of family is a single person who supports one or more dependents under prescribed conditions.)

2—If your tax is $10 or less, it must be paid in full at the time you file your return—before April 15. If your tax is more than $10, you may pay in installments—but no payment except the last may be less than $10. If your tax is $40 or more, you may pay in four equal installments.

Commissioner Bates reminded income taxpayers to reduce their normal tax by 10 per cent and unincorporated business taxpayers to compute the tax at a rate of 3 per cent instead of the normal 4 per cent. Both reductions were re-enacted by the 1953 legislature on Governor Dewey's recommendation.

Police Say Negro Admits Slaying Agency Executive

New York, March 26 (AP)—A 26-year-old Negro was arrested early today in the slaying of an employment agency executive, whose stabbed and battered body was found yesterday in his lower Fifth avenue apartment.

Police identified the prisoner as Joseph King and said he admitted slaying Harold G. Oerther, 46, who he said thereatened him with a knife and made improper advances toward him. King was booked on a charge of homicide.

Oerther, a $10,000-a-year placement director for the Greenfield Employment Agency, lived in a well-appointed three-room apartment.

He failed to appear for work Monday and Tuesday. Yesterday his office telephoned a stepdaughter, Lucia Smith, 18, of Morristown, N. J., asking her to investigate.

Miss Smith and the building superintendent entered the apartment with a pass key and found the body, sprawled unclothed across the foot of a bed with a bloodstained pillow across the face.

Oerther's body bore a number of knife wounds and showed evidence of a severe beating. Also on the bed was a long knife, its handle broken. A chair rung lay nearby.

Robbery Not Incentive

Although the apartment was in disarray, police said, an investigation indicated robbery was not the motive.

King, who came here from Charleston, S. C., last September, was seized in a neighborhood bar about 10 hours after Oerther's body was found.

Police did not reveal what information led them to King.

He was reading a newspaper account of the murder when caught.

Married five years ago, Oerther was estranged from his wife, Mary, a school teacher who resides in Morristown. Mrs. Oerther was a widow with two grown daughters, one of them Lucia Smith.

Changing Prices Have Consumers on Rocker

By SAM DAWSON

New York, March 25 (AP)—The price teeter-totter tosses the consumer up and down today.

A big car maker slashes prices on his autos. But the price hikes are announced on the materials that are used to build homes, on some farm equipment, some pots and pans, lamp bulbs, on chemicals and dry cleaning. And a clothing manufacturer predicts men's suits will cost more next fall.

The car price cut by Chrysler pinpoints the growing competition in the auto industry as production rises and sales hold to their old levels.

Although car making costs are going up, the president of Chrysler says that the campany can turn out more cars now than under controls, and greater volume permits lower prices.

Dealers Worried

But observers note that the entire industry is pouring out cars on the eve of its big selling season. And this comes when the used car dealers are holding around 25 per cent larger stocks than they did a year ago, and are worried about how these are going to move in the weeks ahead.

Price rises in other goods are largely from the widening ripples in the decontrol pond.

Phelps Dodge, the second largest domestic copper producer, is advancing its copper price again. At its new price of 30 cents a pound its copper is now 5½ cents higher than it was under controls.

Previous price hikes in the copper industry have sent various firm's prices to a consumer-confusing range of 27½ to 36½ cents.

This is rippling out through the manufacturers of goods from copper. Revere Copper & Brass is increasing prices on most of its copped-clad stainless steel cooking utensils by 4.5 per cent. The price of stainless steel has also risen since decontrol.

If you're planning to build a home, you'll likely find prices up on cement, brick, gypsum products, wall board and plumbing supplies. Hikes in all of these are announced today by individual producers.

Another sulphur company is boosting the price of that widely used industrial chemical.

Tractors Go Up

Several farm machinery makers are raising prices on tractors, loaders, replacement parts and other items. But all say that only part of their lines are affected. And one says he is cutting prices on two of his machines.

Cleveland reports that dry cleaning prices are going up by five to 15 cents a garment. Increased labor costs is given as the reason.

Men's suits may cost $2 to $3 more this fall—this one blamed on expectation of rising labor costs. J. I. Udell, chairman of Max Udell Sons & Co., men's suit makers, says the men's clothing industry expects a wage boost to come out of the negotiations now going on with the CIO Amalgamated Clothing Workers.

The wage hike will be passed along in higher clothing prices, Udell says. Some other suit makers say the price hikes may go higher than $3 a suit.

But not all prices are rising. Most, in fact, are holding steady with decontrol playing no part. And some definitely on the weak side.

Example: Corporate Bonds. Prices are going down, and interest costs are going up—as the Georgia Power Co. and the Dallas Power & Light Co. found out yesterday when they placed issues on the market.

Dies of Skull Fracture As Truck Rams Her Car

Elkton, Md., March 26 (AP)—Mrs. Florence Beard, 40, of (57 Tisdale road) Scarsdale, N. Y., was killed last night when the car she was sitting in was hit by a truck and she was thrown to the pavement.

State police said the accident happened one mile east of here in front of the Elkton Drive-In Theatre on U. S. Route 40.

Mrs. Beard was pronounced dead of a crushed skull on arrival at Union Hospital.

Her husband, William K. Beard, driver of the auto, was not injured.

Police said the big tractor-trailer swung over the middle line on the dual lane highway and rammed the auto as it was standing still. The car spun around and the woman was thrown out.

The driver of the tractor-trailer, identified as John C. Davis, 30, of (1004 West Third St.) Gastonia, N. C., was charged with man-slaughter and held in $1,000 bail.

Horse Comeback

Swift Current, Sask. (AP)—The horse has not been shoved entirely out of the picture here. A. C. Sanburn, a pioneer Chaplin farmer, was granted a license to operate a liverty stable and riding academy—the first here in more than 20 years.

ATOMIC TEST

Civil defense authorities could not have prepared any better advertisement for the urgency of their program than the television pictures of the atomic exploson at Yucca Flat. Seasoned news commentators, used to watching spectacular events, were momentarily speechless as the great atomic cloud mushroomed skyward over the desert.

Those who watched the blast on television could not help but wonder what it would be like to be close to such unleased destruction. Viewers must also have remembered, with some misapprehension, that this was an atomic bomb and not nearly so destructive as a hydrogen bomb would be.

If America can build and maintain its strength a modern war in which such weapons would be employed may be avoided. Our strength will depend on our military and naval forces. But it will also depend on the preparedness and the morale of our civilian population. Civilian preparedness means Civil Defense.

One could not watch the drama unfold without becoming prayerful. Here was a mighty force set in motion by man. It could some day be used as power for his machines, as energy to build an even greater civilization. At present, however, it is a weapon which could conceivably destroy a great part of civilization. May its potential for evil soon vanish along with hate from the hearts of men!

SEWARD'S VISION

Although statehood for Alaska is not likely at this session of Congress it seems inevitable that Alaska will become a state in time. It has proved its value to the United States and has justified the vision of Secretary of State William Seward, who risked ridicule to negotiate its purchase from Russia in 1867.

On March 30, 1867, the United States and Russia agreed to terms of a treaty which provided for the sale of Alaska, then owned by Russia, to the United States for $7,200,000. Opponents of the move called the purchase "Steward's folly," and talked of the newly acquired territory as a tract of worthless frozen land.

The purchase of Alaska proved to be one of the wisest moves ever made by an American secretary of state. Its wealth in resources more than repaid the purchase price in a few years. With Alaska in the hands of the United States the influence of European power on this continent dwindled.

It is hard to predict exactly when Alaska will come into the union as a state. At present it is likely that Hawaii will be admitted first. But when Alaska finally is admitted it will be the historical vindication of the vision of William Seward.

WORDS BREAK NO BONES

"You're a liar!" is often the last remark uttered before the fight. True in personal relations, this is not necessarily so in diplomatic exchanges. Our protest to the Prague Communist government over the attacks on two of our jet planes produced a reply which our government now treats with scorn.

"The Czechoslovak government's attempted explanation of this provocative incident," our answer runs, "is a falsification of facts designed to cover its responsibility for this inexcusable action."

Strong words these, but no war will result. Once hostilities might have resulted from such language, but not nowadays. Too many bitter exchanges, mostly on the Russian side, have been tossed about in recent years without anything serious coming from them.

If the Kremlin really thought us the vile criminals it has repeatedly styled us, it would try to wipe us from the earth. Its failure to do so means partly that we are too strong to warrant such an attempt. It is also a sign that Moscow's harsh words let off steam which might otherwise have resulted in action.

The late Jock Menefee, a successful big league pitcher half a century ago, did something in 1902 which probably no one has emulated since then. In that season at one time or another he played every position on the diamond except catcher and shortstop. Why he did not try his hand at them is no longer known.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE BRITISH BURDEN

The broad problem of war that we must face requires an analysis of the position of Great Britain, which is the principal American military base in Europe. Some British resent this fact; many Americans prefer to ignore it. It is this awkward geographical and military relationship which has laid Great Britain open to attack by Russian airpower, bombs and guided missiles.

No matter how much we may disagree with British policy, this one fact explains the British fears that American policy may lead to World War III, which the British may not be able to take. Two univeral wars have destroyed the great British Empire and have deprived Britain of its prime position as leader among all nations. A third universal war could reduce Great Britain to a satellite of the victor, if any.

Great Britain's power was built upon its navy, which kept open the lanes of trade and commerce for all nations. Great Britain is now probably the third naval power, the United States being first and Soviet Russia, second. Even if Russian naval power is exaggerated, the peril is great.

The British are now engaged in a hot war in Malaya. That is an undramatic war that does not compete with Korea or French Indo-China in the news. It is sheer murder in those swamps. The Malayan war pins down about 25,000 British troops and both the British Pacific Fleet and the Far East Air Force.

The British maintain a considerable force in Hongkong to hold that island against the Chinese Communists. If Mao Tze-tung's hordes were ready to seize Hongkong, it would not be a difficult task. Hongkong is not easy to defend as the Japanese proved in the last war.

The British also hold a territory known as Kowloon, which is actually on the Chinese mainland. It is an almost impossible area to hold against millions of Chinese who live in Hongkong and Kowloon. Yet, they have managed to keep both, possibly by their temporizing policy, which has, to the Chinese Communists, the virtue of an open door to the non-Russian world.

The British are in Korea where by the end of 1952, they had suffered about 3,500 casualties. They have troops in Germany, in Austria, and in the Middle East.

The point of all this is that the British are convinced that they are doing about as much as their population and their reduced resources will permit. They desire that Americans understand that their problems are different from ours; that they no longer control colonies but are a member of a Commonwealth of Nations, the members of which are not bound by British decisions.

For instance, India, which is a member of the Commonwealth, has adopted a position of neutrality between the United States and Soviet Russia even in the matter of the Korean War. Every question of policy has to be referred to each of the Commonwealth nations for its own decisions. The British Empire, which in two wars drew troops from India, can no longer draw on any Commonwealth nation, each deciding what it will do in any situation.

Within Great Britain there is no unanimity of opinion as to the relations with the United States. The left wing Laborites, led by Aneurin Bevan, are definitely anti-American. They are opposed to capitalism, particularly the American type. The Churchill government's majority in Parliament is narrow and moves carefully, lest a change of government bring Bevan into power, which, from the American standpoint, could be catastrophic.

Added to Bevan is a sizable Communist contingent. As in the United States, Communist strength is not measurable in terms of party members, but in the strength of the fellow-travellers, particularly among the intellectuals who accept the doctrine of co-existence as correct. That is, tired of war, which cost Great Britain so much materially and even more in trained and educated manpower, these intellectuals prefer to accept peace with Russia in whatever form it may come. Thus, they often accept more hopefully than is realistically correct any suggestion from Russia that gives the impression that peace is immediately possible.

The tendency toward neutralism in British public opinion can no more be ignored by American statesmen than by the British government. An overturn of government could produce a formal acceptance of neutralism at the wrong time. To avoid just that the Churchill and Eden government evades a showdown.

HEART DISEASE

Notwithstanding all that the American Heart Association has taught us about heart disease, there is still the impression that once an individual is known to have heart disease, he must spend the remaining weeks or months as an invalid, his days of usefulness and as a breadwinner being behind him.

It is not surprising, therefore, that the American Heart Association, by booklets and leaflets written by oustanding heart specialists, is now pouring this literature into the offices of physicians reminding them that a person with heart disease is, in the majority of cases, capable of earning a whole or partial living; is, therefore, a useful member of the community, an asset and not a liability.

Thus in a broad attack upon misconceptions that keep many capable heart patients out of jobs, the American Heart Association today launched an intensive three-fold educational drive among heart patients, industrial employers and physicians to spur the employment of workers with heart disease. They are issuing three booklets entitled "Facts About Employment and Heart Disease," "Returning Cardiacs (heart patients) to Work," and "Those Hands Are Able."

The fact is emphasized, and it needs emphasizing, that a large number of heart patients can and do work, and that when a patient is "selectively" placed in a job and proper medical supervision is provided, continued employment is possible without harmful effect. The facts as outlined in the booklets show that many heart patients can work at many kinds of jobs on an equal footing with normal, healthy workers.

It is pointed out to employers and the families of heart patients that the sooner the heart patient gets back on the job, the better he'll feel and the better he'll work. And when the heart patient is anxious about his ability to work and his safety, heart associations are encouraging the use of "sheltered workshops" to help heart patients increase their confidence and work capacity, so that they can later take jobs in industry the same as those without heart disease.

These three booklets written for heart patients and their families, for employers, and for physicians, can be obtained from heart associations everywhere or from the American Heart Association, 44 East 23rd street, New York 10, N. Y. There is no charge.

NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington (NEA) — The Full Employment Act is now generally credited as the brain child of Jim Patton of the National Farmers' Union. He sold the idea to Senator Murray of Montana.

Senator Murray had Leon Keyserling and Bert Gross—who later became vice-chairman and secretary of the Council of Economic Advisers set up by the act—whip it into legislative form. There were the usual hearings and the law passed in 1946.

At that time there was considerable fear of a postwar depression with unemployment of eight million or so. Anything that would help plan for economic stability seemed like a good idea.

The depression never happened, so CEA never had to bother about that. But it had other things to worry about. There was a minor recession in 1949. The Marshall Plan came along, and there was the big question of whether the country could afford it. Finally there was the Korean war, and a whole new defense economy to plan for.

There had been other economic planning in Washington before. But mostly, economic planning in those days was done by whoever could gain President Roosevelt's ear to sell him a bill of goods on devaluing gold or plowing under little pigs.

What the then-new Council of Economic Advisers set out to do in 1947 was to spell out a coordinated economic policy for the whole United States.

Busy as bird dogs, the three-man council and its 30-man staff of experts wrote annual, semi-annual and quarterly reports. They were fairly dull reading. But over the six-year period, CEA has compiled a lot of facts, figures and words on what makes the U. S. economy tick, where it's been and where it's going.

It is impossible to review all the recommendations made by the council here, or to tell what happened to them. Leon Keyserling, who recently resigned as chairman of CEA, lists three major economic issues of the period as a fair basis on which to judge the worth of the Full Employment Act and CEA idea.

Full Business Expansion

First was the threat of recession in 1949. Many people thought it would lead to a depression. Labor leaders advised that the government increase spending. Business leaders advised that government cut taxes, approve wage cuts and layoffs to reduce full employment, which was considered inflationary.

CEA, in its mid-1949 report, said the recession would be of short and shallow duration and that none of the above extreme measures should be taken. CEA recommended no increase in public works spending, on cuts in taxes and full business expansion.

Now nobody claims this CEA recommendation was the sole conditioning factor. But by early 1950—before Korea—there was recovery beyond the 1948 boom.

When the Korean war broke out, the big question became, how much defense spending could the U. S. economy stand?

In 1948-49, the argument had been over whether the U. S. could afford a $12 or $13 billion defense budget. In 1950, after fighting in Korea began, there was much talk that U. S. domestic economy would have to be cut back sharply to meet a larger program.

CEA then took the position that the U. S. economy had the power to take care of defense needs and at the same time maintain a higher level of civilian consumption. This stand was regarded as ludicrous at the time. But even with adjustment for higher prices, it can now be shown that the U. S. economy of 1952 and 1953 has expanded beyond 1950-51 levels.

The third big economic issue arose over the question of inflation. One school of thought was that, at the beginning of the Korean war, everything should be frozen—wages, prices, manpower materials.

Sticking to a belief in the need for constant expansion of American industry, CEA opposed the freeze and advocated a faster build-up of production so as to meet defense needs without controls. This line was followed in part by Congress, but not wholly.

The result of the fair balance attempted has been that since the beginning of 1952, most of the growth in the U. S. economy has not been in defense, but in civilian production. And the recession which was then predicted by some for early 1953 has now been pushed back to 1954.

These are the highlights of the background on which President Eisenhower must base his decision on whether he wants to continue CEA—or try to let one man do the job.

Karl Robert, Count Nessselrode (1780-1862), who was Russia's Minister of Foreign Affairs for forty years (1816-1856), could not speak Russian. He was born in Lisbon, the son of a German father who was Russia's ambassador in Portugal. He was a graduate of a German military school in Berlin and spent his youth in Russia's diplomatic service abroad, but he never learned to speak Russian. He corresponded with his emperor in French and this was also the language he used at home.

Price Cuts by Chrysler on Cars and Trucks Seen Vindicating Free Enterprise

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, March 26 — The American system of free competition has been vindicated not only by the removal of government controls but also by the announcement that one large motorcar manufacturer, without regard to what its competitors might do, has boldly reduced prices.

For many years now the American people have had it dinned in their ears that American industry is controlled by trusts which fix prices, and that a few large companies, by dominating the field, control the market for their products. Democrats have inveighed against what they called "oligopoly" and demagogues in trade-union forums have denounced large business as monopolistic.

The demonstration which the Chrysler Corp. has just given effectively refutes any such argument. For the announcement of a price decrease does not necessarily mean that all companies will follow suit, though some of them may do so. This would not be the first time that a price reduction by one manufacturer has been met with the statement by others that their own products were already low enough or in line with the market.

The significance of the Chrysler action is that the public generally has been asked to believe, ever since price controls were imposed a decade or more ago, that removal of restrictions on price or output necessarily leads to higher prices to the consumer. Again and again the Democratic administrations have insisted on retaining laws to continue price restrictions so as really to influence the course of the economy, while opponents have argued for freedom from such restraints.

Today, as most of the controls are being lifted, there are some products and raw materials which have gone up slightly in price, while others have come down. Sometimes price rises are necessary after controls are lifted so as to correct inequities in the cost picture, which couldn't be cured under controls. But, in the long run, prices are brought down as efficiency with new machinery makes quantity production less and less expensive. Obviously the Chrysler company thinks it can sell more cars at the lower prices than it did when output was limited by government control.

But the true importance of the price reduction by the Chrysler Corporation is that it emphasizes the return of a supply-and-demand situation in America. This is the healthiest sign that has appeared on the business horizon for many years. It is an application of the basic principle that no monopoly should be permitted to hold up the consumer by a concerted arrangement of competitors to fix prices. Unfortunately, there are monopolistic factors that are not covered by law. Thus, a nationwide bargaining instrument in the form of a big labor union nowadays can, in effect, fix the price of important products by fixing the labor cost. The largest companies can absorb the extra expense, but the smaller ones often cannot. Yet they are expected to pay the same rates of wages as the bigger fellows. This results in forcing smaller companies to beg the larger ones to take them over, and that's one way competition is cut down.

The automobile industry is a sharply competitive industry and in its history many large companies have been built out of smaller ones while still others have fallen by the wayside. The entry of new competitors has also been proved possible in the auto industry notwithstanding the leadership of a few large companies. The Kaiser-Frazer company entered the field in recent years and only this week purchased the Willys-Overland company, thus making the combined operation larger and more efficient than either of the predecessor companies had been before.

The argument for the capitalistic system—namely, that it produces goods at low cost to the consumer, pays high wages and gives individual initiative a chance to be rewarded—is bitterly attacked not only by Communists here and abroad, but by radicals in America and Socialists in Britain who argue that a state monopoly is more desirable than a privately owned system.

The effort to bring about a system of public ownership of certain industries, which has succeeded in part in Great Britain, has been for many decades sponsored by so-called liberal and radical groups in America, too. Indeed a movement to take over the steel industry has had support inside the Democratic administration from officials who threatened that unless the steel companies increase their plants, they might find the government doing it for them. Steel capacity has been increased by the industry itself in the last few years under government pressure, but it remains to be seen whether idle plants built at high cost will plague the industry as it tries to bring its prices down when demand falls off.

There is no effective substitute for a freely operated competitive economy.

No Squawk on Squeaks

Hong Kong (AP)—There are now four leather peddlers operating along the Hong Kong waterfront who have adopted the nickname of "no squeak." The peddlers long ago discovered that foreigners often judge leather by its squeak or lack of squeak—preferring the silent variety. The peddlers, who set up displays on navy ships, proclaim the quality of their goods by their nicknames. American sailors report there are No Squeak Liu, No Squeak Chang, No Squeak Chaun and No Squeak Johnson. No Squeak Johnson is just as Chinese as the others—he merely adopted the name of an old employer.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

The Sidney Hillman Foundation, Inc. recently announced that William O. Douglas, associate justice of the Supreme Court, had been selected to receive its annual "award for meritorious public service." The amount of this "award" is $1,000 and it has the legal status of a tax-exempt gift of money under the official interpretation of the internal revenue. My authority is a letter from the late Elmer Irey, the coordinator of treasury intelligence units. The occasion was a request for guidance in regard to a check for $1,000 which I had received as a Pulitzer award in journalism. Irey said the problem was a new one on him so he had obtained a ruling.

I wrote to Justice Douglas asking whether he had accepted this gift of money from an organization (which is aggressively political) but received no answer. Neither did he answer a request for a statement as to whether he had received pay from Look magazine for an article about his travels in the Far East and, if so, how much. The editor of Look did answer a letter of similar import. His answer was "yes." However, the editor declined to tell me the amount paid Douglas for this extracurricular commercial activity with a company which might come before the court in a lawsuit involving its financial interests of other important interests.

The Sidney Hillman Foundation, Inc., announced its gift of money, described euphemistically as an "award," in a brochure without date and giving no official address. However, I do not doubt its authenticity because the daily papers mentioned the "award" some weeks ago.

Douglas gets $25,000 a year from the government. He also gets other income, as the editor of Look tells us. To a man with that much income a tax-free tip of $1,000 would be equal to almost $2,000 of taxable income. It is not necessary to labor the fact that this was substantial income or the propriety of the foundation's conduct in giving cash to a justice of the Supreme Court. Clever and learned as he is in the law and other pertinent lines of thought, Justice Douglas may reasonably be thought to have weighed these considerations, including the propriety of his own conduct, and to have resolved them in his own favor.

The Sidney Hillman Foundation, Inc., exists in honor of a pro-Soviet native of the iron curtain area who founded the Amalgamated Clothing Workers in 1914. He reigned as president-dictator until he died in 1946. Its convention in Chicago, in 1922, with Hillman in the chair, opened with the singing of the anthem, or war cry, of world communism entitled "The Internationale." Hillman then read a message of greeting from William Z. Foster, one of the leaders of the American Communist party, and the convention decided to organize a big corporation to help Soviet Russia build up a clothing industry. This was done at the time when the government of the United States, which had given Hillman asylum from the Czarist laws and punishments, was maintaining its refusal to "recognize" Soviet Russia.

It never was officially established that Hillman was a member of the Communist party, but his most devoted disciples would not deny that he was a great friend of Soviet Russia and knew exactly what Russia's attitude was toward the government of the United States and the co-existence of capitalistic nations and Soviet Russia.

That attitude was implacable hostility. Hillman was a powerful political accomplice of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Arthur Krock's historic newspaper story that Roosevelt in 1944 said "Clear it with Sidney" has been widely accepted as fact. If this is true, it means that Hillman dictated the nomination of Harry Truman for vice president that year and thus fatefully chose the man who represented the United States in the Potsdam surrender to Russia.

Hillman organized the Political Action Committee of the CIO in collusion with notorious Communists, including John Abt, who was general counsel of the PAC, and Leon Pressman, who was general counsel of the CIO itself. Pressman later confessed that he had been a party member and said Abt was a member of the same cell within our government in Washington.

Douglas is noted for his ready resort to language which has been described as Elizabethan, a trait which brought him a polite but pointed reproof from the chairman of a merry-making society of the gridiron type in Washington. Invited to membership, Douglas made a speech so lusty that the chairman put him on probation, though he finally was admitted.

A few years ago, Douglas went to the annual convention of the CIO in Seattle and made a speech which provoked speculations as to his availability as a candidate for President with the endorsement and financial support of the CIO. I interviewed Douglas in his chambers soon afterward. He insisted that he had done no wrong. He said he had the same right as

Civil defense authorities could not have prepared any better advertisement for the urgency of their program than the television pictures of the atomic exploson at Yucca Flat. Seasoned news commentators, used to watching spectacular events, were momentarily speechless as the great atomic cloud mushroomed skyward over the desert.

Those who watched the blast on television could not help but wonder what it would be like to be close to such unleased destruction. Viewers must also have remembered, with some misapprehension, that this was an atomic bomb and not nearly so destructive as a hydrogen bomb would be.

If America can build and maintain its strength a modern war in which such weapons would be employed may be avoided. Our strength will depend on our military and naval forces. But it will also depend on the preparedness and the morale of our civilian population. Civilian preparedness means Civil Defense.

One could not watch the drama unfold without becoming prayerful. Here was a mighty force set in motion by man. It could some day be used as power for his machines, as energy to build an even greater civilization. At present, however, it is a weapon which could conceivably destroy a great part of civilization. May its potential for evil soon vanish along with hate from the hearts of men!

SEWARD'S VISION

Although statehood for Alaska is not likely at this session of Congress it seems inevitable that Alaska will become a state in time. It has proved its value to the United States and has justified the vision of Secretary of State William Seward, who risked ridicule to negotiate its purchase from Russia in 1867.

On March 30, 1867, the United States and Russia agreed to terms of a treaty which provided for the sale of Alaska, then owned by Russia, to the United States for $7,200,000. Opponents of the move called the purchase "Steward's folly," and talked of the newly acquired territory as a tract of worthless frozen land.

The purchase of Alaska proved to be one of the wisest moves ever made by an American secretary of state. Its wealth in resources more than repaid the purchase price in a few years. With Alaska in the hands of the United States the influence of European power on this continent dwindled.

It is hard to predict exactly when Alaska will come into the union as a state. At present it is likely that Hawaii will be admitted first. But when Alaska finally is admitted it will be the historical vindication of the vision of William Seward.

WORDS BREAK NO BONES

"You're a liar!" is often the last remark uttered before the fight. True in personal relations, this is not necessarily so in diplomatic exchanges. Our protest to the Prague Communist government over the attacks on two of our jet planes produced a reply which our government now treats with scorn.

"The Czechoslovak government's attempted explanation of this provocative incident," our answer runs, "is a falsification of facts designed to cover its responsibility for this inexcusable action."

Strong words these, but no war will result. Once hostilities might have resulted from such language, but not nowadays. Too many bitter exchanges, mostly on the Russian side, have been tossed about in recent years without anything serious coming from them.

If the Kremlin really thought us the vile criminals it has repeatedly styled us, it would try to wipe us from the earth. Its failure to do so means partly that we are too strong to warrant such an attempt. It is also a sign that Moscow's harsh words let off steam which might otherwise have resulted in action.

The late Jock Menefee, a successful big league pitcher half a century ago, did something in 1902 which probably no one has emulated since then. In that season at one time or another he played every position on the diamond except catcher and shortstop. Why he did not try his hand at them is no longer known.

'These Days'

THE BRITISH BURDEN

The broad problem of war that we must face requires an analysis of the position of Great Britain, which is the principal American military base in Europe. Some British resent this fact; many Americans prefer to ignore it. It is this awkward geographical and military relationship which has laid Great Britain open to attack by Russian airpower, bombs and guided missiles.

No matter how much we may disagree with British policy, this one fact explains the British fears that American policy may lead to World War III, which the British may not be able to take. Two univeral wars have destroyed the great British Empire and have deprived Britain of its prime position as leader among all nations. A third universal war could reduce Great Britain to a satellite of the victor, if any.

Great Britain's power was built upon its navy, which kept open the lanes of trade and commerce for all nations. Great Britain is now probably the third naval power, the United States being first and Soviet Russia, second. Even if Russian naval power is exaggerated, the peril is great.

The British are now engaged in a hot war in Malaya. That is an undramatic war that does not compete with Korea or French Indo-China in the news. It is sheer murder in those swamps. The Malayan war pins down about 25,000 British troops and both the British Pacific Fleet and the Far East Air Force.

The British maintain a considerable force in Hongkong to hold that island against the Chinese Communists. If Mao Tze-tung's hordes were ready to seize Hongkong, it would not be a difficult task. Hongkong is not easy to defend as the Japanese proved in the last war.

The British also hold a territory known as Kowloon, which is actually on the Chinese mainland. It is an almost impossible area to hold against millions of Chinese who live in Hongkong and Kowloon. Yet, they have managed to keep both, possibly by their temporizing policy, which has, to the Chinese Communists, the virtue of an open door to the non-Russian world.

The British are in Korea where by the end of 1952, they had suffered about 3,500 casualties. They have troops in Germany, in Austria, and in the Middle East.

The point of all this is that the British are convinced that they are doing about as much as their population and their reduced resources will permit. They desire that Americans understand that their problems are different from ours; that they no longer control colonies but are a member of a Commonwealth of Nations, the members of which are not bound by British decisions.

For instance, India, which is a member of the Commonwealth, has adopted a position of neutrality between the United States and Soviet Russia even in the matter of the Korean War. Every question of policy has to be referred to each of the Commonwealth nations for its own decisions. The British Empire, which in two wars drew troops from India, can no longer draw on any Commonwealth nation, each deciding what it will do in any situation.

Within Great Britain there is no unanimity of opinion as to the relations with the United States. The left wing Laborites, led by Aneurin Bevan, are definitely anti-American. They are opposed to capitalism, particularly the American type. The Churchill government's majority in Parliament is narrow and moves carefully, lest a change of government bring Bevan into power, which, from the American standpoint, could be catastrophic.

Added to Bevan is a sizable Communist contingent. As in the United States, Communist strength is not measurable in terms of party members, but in the strength of the fellow-travellers, particularly among the intellectuals who accept the doctrine of co-existence as correct. That is, tired of war, which cost Great Britain so much materially and even more in trained and educated manpower, these intellectuals prefer to accept peace with Russia in whatever form it may come. Thus, they often accept more hopefully than is realistically correct any suggestion from Russia that gives the impression that peace is immediately possible.

The tendency toward neutralism in British public opinion can no more be ignored by American statesmen than by the British government. An overturn of government could produce a formal acceptance of neutralism at the wrong time. To avoid just that the Churchill and Eden government evades a showdown.

Leon Keyserling, who recently resigned as chairman of CEA, lists three major economic issues of the period as a fair basis on which to judge the worth of the Full Employment Act and CEA idea.

Full Business Expansion

First was the threat of recession in 1949. Many people thought it would lead to a depression. Labor leaders advised that the government increase spending. Business leaders advised that government cut taxes, approve wage cuts and layoffs to reduce full employment, which was considered inflationary.

CEA, in its mid-1949 report, said the recession would be of short and shallow duration and that none of the above extreme measures should be taken. CEA recommended no increase in public works spending, on cuts in taxes and full business expansion.

Now nobody claims this CEA recommendation was the sole conditioning factor. But by early 1950—before Korea—there was recovery beyond the 1948 boom.

When the Korean war broke out, the big question became, how much defense spending could the U. S. economy stand?

This stand was regarded as ludicrous at the time. But even with adjustment for higher prices, it can now be shown that the U. S. economy of 1952 and 1953 has expanded beyond 1950-51 levels.

The third big economic issue arose over the question of inflation. One school of thought was that, at the beginning of the Korean war, everything should be frozen—wages, prices, manpower materials.

Sticking to a belief in the need for constant expansion of American industry, CEA opposed the freeze and advocated a faster build-up of production so as to meet defense needs without controls. This line was followed in part by Congress, but not wholly.

The result of the fair balance attempted has been that since the beginning of 1952, most of the growth in the U. S. economy has not been in defense, but in civilian production. And the recession which was then predicted by some for early 1953 has now been pushed back to 1954.

These are the highlights of the background on which President Eisenhower must base his decision on whether he wants to continue CEA—or try to let one man do the job.

Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs Could Not Speak Russian

Karl Robert, Count Nessselrode (1780-1862), who was Russia's Minister of Foreign Affairs for forty years (1816-1856), could not speak Russian. He was born in Lisbon, the son of a German father who was Russia's ambassador in Portugal. He was a graduate of a German military school in Berlin and spent his youth in Russia's diplomatic servise abroad, but he never learned to speak Russian. He corresponded with his emperor in French and this was also the language he used at home.

No Squawk on Squeaks

Hong Kong (AP)—There are now four leather peddlers operating along the Hong Kong waterfront who have adopted the nickname of "no squeak." The peddlers long ago discovered that foreigners often judge leather by its squeak or lack of squeak—preferring the silent variety. The peddlers, who set up displays on navy ships, proclaim the quality of their goods by their nicknames. American sailors report there are No Squeak Liu, No Squeak Chang, No Squeak Chaun and No Squeak Johnson. No Squeak Johnson is just as Chinese as the others—he merely adopted the name of an old employer.

Price Cuts by Chrysler on Cars and Trucks Seen Vindicating Free Enterprise

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, March 26—The American system of free competition has been vindicated not only by the removal of government controls but also by the announcement that one large motorcar manufacturer, without regard to what its competitors might do, has boldly reduced prices.

For many years now the American people have had it dinned in their ears that American industry is controlled by trusts which fix prices, and that a few large companies, by dominating the field, control the market for their products. Democrats have inveighed against what they called "oligopoly" and demagogues in trade-union forums have denounced large business as monopolistic.

The demonstration which the Chrysler Corp. has just given effectively refutes any such argument. For the announcement of a price decrease does not necessarily mean that all companies will follow suit, though some of them may do so. This would not be the first time that a price reduction by one manufacturer has been met with the statement by others that their own products were already low enough or in line with the market.

The significance of the Chrysler action is that the public generally has been asked to believe, ever since price controls were imposed a decade or more ago, that removal of restrictions on price or output necessarily leads to higher prices to the consumer. Again and again the Democratic administrations have insisted on retaining laws to continue price restrictions so as really to influence the course of the economy, while opponents have argued for freedom from such restraints.

Today, as most of the controls are being lifted, there are some products and raw materials which have gone up slightly in price, while others have come down. Sometimes price rises are necessary after controls are lifted so as to correct inequities in the cost picture, which couldn't be cured under controls. But, in the long run, prices are brought down as efficiency with new machinery makes quantity production less and less expensive. Obviously the Chrysler company thinks it can sell more cars at the lower prices than it did when output was limited by government control.

But the true importance of the price reduction by the Chrysler Corporation is that it emphasizes the return of a supply-and-demand situation in America. This is the healthiest sign that has appeared on the business horizon for many years. It is an application of the basic principle that no monopoly should be permitted to hold up the consumer by a concerted arrangement of competitors to fix prices. Unfortunately, there are monopolistic factors that are not covered by law. Thus, a nationwide bargaining instrument in the form of a big labor union nowadays can, in effect, fix the price of important products by fixing the labor cost. The largest companies can absorb the extra expense, but the smaller ones often cannot. Yet they are expected to pay the same rates of wages as the bigger fellows. This results in forcing smaller companies to beg the larger ones to take them over, and that's one way competition is cut down.

The automobile industry is a sharply competitive industry and in its history many large companies have been built out of smaller ones while still others have fallen by the wayside. The entry of new competitors has also been proved possible in the auto industry notwithstanding the leadership of a few large companies. The Kaiser-Frazer company entered the field in recent years and only this week purchased the Willys-Overland company, thus making the combined operation larger and more efficient than either of the predecessor companies had been before.

The argument for the capitalistic system—namely, that it produces goods at low cost to the consumer, pays high wages and gives individual initiative a chance to be rewarded—is bitterly attacked not only by Communists here and abroad, but by radicals in America and Socialists in Britain who argue that a state monopoly is more desirable than a privately owned system.

The effort to bring about a system of public ownership of certain industries, which has succeeded in part in Great Britain, has been for many decades sponsored by so-called liberal and radical groups in America, too. Indeed a movement to take over the steel industry has had support inside the Democratic administration from officials who threatened that unless the steel companies increase their plants, they might find the government doing it for them. Steel capacity has been increased by the industry itself in the last few years under government pressure, but it remains to be seen whether idle plants built at high cost will plague the industry as it tries to bring its prices down when demand falls off.

There is no effective substitute for a freely operated competitive economy.

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

The Sidney Hillman Foundation, Inc. recently announced that William O. Douglas, associate justice of the Supreme Court, had been selected to receive its annual "award for meritorious public service." The amount of this "award" is $1,000 and it has the legal status of a tax-exempt gift of money under the official interpretation of the internal revenue. My authority is a letter from the late Elmer Irey, the coordinator of treasury intelligence units. The occasion was a request for guidance in regard to a check for $1,000 which I had received as a Pulitzer award in journalism. Irey said the problem was a new one on him so he had obtained a ruling.

I wrote to Justice Douglas asking whether he had accepted this gift of money from an organization (which is aggressively political) but received no answer. Neither did he answer a request for a statement as to whether he had received pay from Look magazine for an article about his travels in the Far East and, if so, how much. The editor of Look did answer a letter of similar import. His answer was "yes." However, the editor declined to tell me the amount paid Douglas for this extracurricular commercial activity with a company which might come before the court in a lawsuit involving its financial interests of other important interests.

The Sidney Hillman Foundation, Inc., announced its gift of money, described euphemistically as an "award," in a brochure without date and giving no official address. However, I do not doubt its authenticity because the daily papers mentioned the "award" some weeks ago.

Douglas gets $25,000 a year from the government. He also gets other income, as the editor of Look tells us. To a man with that much income a tax-free tip of $1,000 would be equal to almost $2,000 of taxable income. It is not necessary to labor the fact that this was substantial income or the propriety of the foundation's conduct in giving cash to a justice of the Supreme Court. Clever and learned as he is in the law and other pertinent lines of thought, Justice Douglas may reasonably be thought to have weighed these considerations, including the propriety of his own conduct, and to have resolved them in his own favor.

The Sidney Hillman Foundation, Inc., exists in honor of a pro-Soviet native of the iron curtain area who founded the Amalgamated Clothing Workers in 1914. He reigned as president-dictator until he died in 1946. Its convention in Chicago, in 1922, with Hillman in the chair, opened with the singing of the anthem, or war cry, of world communism entitled "The Internationale." Hillman then read a message of greeting from William Z. Foster, one of the leaders of the American Communist party, and the convention decided to organize a big corporation to help Soviet Russia build up a clothing industry. This was done at the time when the government of the United States, which had given Hillman asylum from the Czarist laws and punishments, was maintaining its refusal to "recognize" Soviet Russia.

It never was officially established that Hillman was a member of the Communist party, but his most devoted disciples would not deny that he was a great friend of Soviet Russia and knew exactly what Russia's attitude was toward the government of the United States and the co-existence of capitalistic nations and Soviet Russia.

That attitude was implacable hostility. Hillman was a powerful political accomplice of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Arthur Krock's historic newspaper story that Roosevelt in 1944 said "Clear it with Sidney" has been widely accepted as fact. If this is true, it means that Hillman dictated the nomination of Harry Truman for vice president that year and thus fatefully chose the man who represented the United States in the Potsdam surrender to Russia.

Hillman organized the Political Action Committee of the CIO in collusion with notorious Communists, including John Abt, who was general counsel of the PAC, and Leon Pressman, who was general counsel of the CIO itself. Pressman later confessed that he had been a party member and said Abt was a member of the same cell within our government in Washington.

Douglas is noted for his ready resort to language which has been described as Elizabethan, a trait which brought him a polite but pointed reproof from the chairman of a merry-making society of the gridiron type in Washington. Invited to membership, Douglas made a speech so lusty that the chairman put him on probation, though he finally was admitted.

A few years ago, Douglas went to the annual convention of the CIO in Seattle and made a speech which provoked speculations as to his availability as a candidate for President with the endorsement and financial support of the CIO. I interviewed Douglas in his chambers soon afterward. He insisted that he had done no wrong. He said he had the same right as

New Budget Approved

New Delhi, India, March 26 (AP)—The Indian Parliament today approved a defense budget for the coming year of 1,998,400,000 rupees ($419,664,000). This is a slight increase over last year's figures. Defense is the biggest single item of budget outlay, taking 46 per cent of total expenditures. Last year India spent 1,979,500,000 rupees ($415,695,000) on defense, which was 49.3 per cent of the total.

Explosions Rock City

A motorist traveling 10,000 miles yearly would take 300 years to cover the 3,000,000 miles of highway in the United States.

Kyes First to Sell His Stock to Keep Record in Clear

Washington, March 26 (AP)—Deputy Secretary of Defense Roger M. Kyes appeared today to be the first of four new top defense officials to complete the sale of privately-held stock in line with promises to put their business affairs in a "glass goldfish bowl."

The Senate Armed Services Committee kept a cover over the bowl for the present.

Chairman Saltonstall (R-Mass.) of the committee said Kyes, former General Motors vice president, has filed a report on sale of his G.M. stock and other securities.

The term "glass goldfish bowl" was used by Secretary of Defense Wilson, former G.M. president, when he agreed to sell his multi-million dollar holdings and make a report to the Senate.

Senate confirmation of four of President Eisenhower's top defense nominees was delayed until they agreed to dispose of any interest in corporations doing defense business. A law forbids any official from doing business with a firm in which he holds even an indirect financial interest.

Will Report April 1

Both Wilson and Kyes agreed to supply a detailed report on disposal of their financial holdings by April 1.

Saltonstall said today he would allow the full Armed Services Committee to decide whether to make public these reports.

Wilson, it was learned, planned to leave today for Detroit to wind up disposal of some 2½ million dollars worth of G.M. stock and other holdings.

Secretary of the Air Force Talbott, former Chrysler Motors executive, promised to file a report on his holdings, and those he is selling, "not later than sometime in April."

Secretary of the Army Stevens, former textile industry executive, did not fix a definite date for his report.

Senators estimated that the four officials held between five and 10 million dollars worth of stock and securities in a long list of corporations at the time they testified.

Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

Beef continued on the bargain counter in most retail stores across the nation this week. Among vegetables, the best buys included cabbage, carrots, celery and lettuce.

Rib roast was an outstanding attraction in many stores, sometimes at the lowest prices in some years. Other meats being featured included chuck roast, round steak and ground beef.

Sirloin steak prices varied, down three cents in some areas and up as much as 10 cents in others. Pork chops headed higher, with increases ranging from two to six cents a pound. Leg of lamb was selling at about the same price as last week, although a few stores featured it at lower levels.

Large Herds Help

The U. S. Department of Agriculture pointed out this week that favorable beef prices are due to the large size of the nation's slaughter herds. An all-time record in cattle and calf numbers was established on Jan. 1, when the estimated total was nearly 94 million head.

As a result, U.S.D.A. figures show beef cuts selling at about the level of early 1950. And that, the department observes, makes beef a remarkable buy.

Elsewhere in the retail picture this week, frying chickens showed a tendency to rise in price, with the average boost running about two cents. Eggs were up a cent in some areas but unchanged in most. Butter at the same prices as a week ago.

Cabbage, celery, carrots and iceberg lettuce were named by numerous stores as excellent purchases. These vegetables were described as of good quality and plentiful.

Good Buys

One chain was featuring asparagus at what it said was the lowest price this year. Cucumbers were on the good buy list of some stores.

Among fruits mentioned by chain stores were Florida oranges and grapefruit. Bananas were on sale at some stores. And one eastern chain listed Winesap apples from Washington state as a weekend attraction.

The food headlines this week were made by coffee. Two of the biggest chains—the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company and Safeway—raised prices two to four cents a pound. One New England chain jumped its prices two to five cents on nationally-distributed brands and two to four cents on its own brands.

Coffee Uncertain

These moves followed sharp increases in the price of green coffee immediately price controls were removed earlier this month. A few days later, roasters raised wholesale prices, explaining that they had no choice since all coffee consumed in this country is imported.

It was too early to say whether retail coffee prices would stabilize at the new levels. When controls were lifted, there were predictions that retail prices would rise as much as seven to 10 cents a pound.

Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

Beef continued on the bargain counter in most retail stores across the nation this week. Among vegetables, the best buys included cabbage, carrots, celery and lettuce.

Rib roast was an outstanding attraction in many stores, sometimes at the lowest prices in some years. Other meats being featured included chuck roast, round steak and ground beef.

Sirloin steak prices varied, down three cents in some areas and up as much as 10 cents in others. Pork chops headed higher, with increases ranging from two to six cents a pound. Leg of lamb was selling at about the same price as last week, although a few stores featured it at lower levels.

Large Herds Help

The U. S. Department of Agriculture pointed out this week that favorable beef prices are due to the large size of the nation's slaughter herds. An all-time record in cattle and calf numbers was established on Jan. 1, when the estimated total was nearly 94 million head.

As a result, U.S.D.A. figures show beef cuts selling at about the level of early 1950. And that, the department observes, makes beef a remarkable buy.

Elsewhere in the retail picture this week, frying chickens showed a tendency to rise in price, with the average boost running about two cents. Eggs were up a cent in some areas but unchanged in most. Butter at the same prices as a week ago.

Cabbage, celery, carrots and iceberg lettuce were named by numerous stores as excellent purchases. These vegetables were described as of good quality and plentiful.

Good Buys

One chain was featuring asparagus at what it said was the lowest price this year. Cucumbers were on the good buy list of some stores.

Among fruits mentioned by chain stores were Florida oranges and grapefruit. Bananas were on sale at some stores. And one eastern chain listed Winesap apples from Washington state as a weekend attraction.

Why We Say--

. . . A helper

Oddly enough, the word sergeant has the same derivation as the word servant . . . although many an army private thinks otherwise. Sergeant comes from the Latin "servire" (to serve). The sergeant was supposed to serve the higher officers.

Freedom Meeting Sunday Afternoon At Ahavath Israel

The Kingston Jewish Community Council will hold a dramatic Freedom Mobilization Meeting at the Ahavath Israel Synagogue, Wurts and Pierpont streets, Sunday, March 29, at 3:30 p. m., it was announced by Herman Eaton, president. The rally in Kingston will be part of a nation-wide program, sponsored by the United Jewish Appeal, to voice American Jewry's concern for the safety and future of Eastern Europe's more than 2,500,000 Jews.

The meeting will be linked by special AT & T Radio-Telephone hook-up to a similar rally at the Hotel Astor in New York, and will feature talks by Ambassador Abba S. Eban of Israel, as well as Edward M. M. Warburg, general chairman of the United Jewish Appeal.

The mobilization will precede by one day the opening of Passover, traditional Jewish Festival of Freedom, and is designed to focus special attention on the United Jewish Appeal's current effort to help Jewish escapees from Iron Curtain countries as well as the need to strengthen the people of Israel who have already offered sanctuary to all who flee from Soviet oppression.

The meeting will also feature a new film, "Adventure in Israel," starring George Jessel. Admission is free. All are welcome. There will positively be no solicitation of funds.

Plenty of Packages

More than 200,000,000 packages are transported annually to all parts of the United States. They are carried by 10,000 daily trains, over 196,000 miles of track, from 22,000 offices of a railway express agency.

15 Carrier Aid Korea

Far East Naval Headquarters, Yokosuka, Japan (AP) — Fifteen U. S. aircraft carriers now are veterans of the Korean war. Nine of them were in mothballs at the start of conflict in June, 1950. Since the fall of 1950 the navy said it has kept at least three attack carriers and one or more escort carriers in Far Eastern waters. The navy said it presently has the flattops Valley Forge, Oriskany and Philippine Sea on duty off the Korean east coast while escort and light carriers with marine pilots operate off the west coast.

Why We Say--

A helper

Oddly enough, the word sergeant has the same derivation as the word servant . . . although many an army private thinks otherwise. Sergeant comes from the Latin "servire" (to serve). The sergeant was supposed to serve the higher officers.

Freedom Meeting Sunday Afternoon At Ahavath Israel

The Kingston Jewish Community Council will hold a dramatic Freedom Mobilization Meeting at the Ahavath Israel Synagogue, Wurts and Pierpont streets, Sunday, March 29, at 3:30 p. m., it was announced by Herman Eaton, president. The rally in Kingston will be part of a nation-wide program, sponsored by the United Jewish Appeal, to voice American Jewry's concern for the safety and future of Eastern Europe's more than 2,500,000 Jews.

The meeting will be linked by special AT & T Radio-Telephone hook-up to a similar rally at the Hotel Astor in New York, and will feature talks by Ambassador Abba S. Eban of Israel, as well as Edward M. M. Warburg, general chairman of the United Jewish Appeal.

The mobilization will precede by one day the opening of Passover, traditional Jewish Festival of Freedom, and is designed to focus special attention on the United Jewish Appeal's current effort to help Jewish escapees from Iron Curtain countries as well as the need to strengthen the people of Israel who have already offered sanctuary to all who flee from Soviet oppression.

The meeting will also feature a new film, "Adventure in Israel," starring George Jessel. Admission is free. All are welcome. There will positively be no solicitation of funds.

Plenty of Packages

More than 200,000,000 packages are transported annually to all parts of the United States. They are carried by 10,000 daily trains, over 196,000 miles of track, from 22,000 offices of a railway express agency.

15 Carrier Aid Korea

Far East Naval Headquarters, Yokosuka, Japan (AP) — Fifteen U. S. aircraft carriers now are veterans of the Korean war. Nine of them were in mothballs at the start of conflict in June, 1950. Since the fall of 1950 the navy said it has kept at least three attack carriers and one or more escort carriers in Far Eastern waters. The navy said it presently has the flattops Valley Forge, Oriskany and Philippine Sea on duty off the Korean east coast while escort and light carriers with marine pilots operate off the west coast.

TV Jargon Explained

New York (AP) — One of television's newest terms, "UHF-TV," is the description of new channels now being taken over in the ultra high frequency area ranging from 470 to 890 megacycles. There is room for 70 channels. The older TV zone, "VHF" or very high frequencies, has 12 channels, extending intermittently from 54 to 216 megacycles.

UJA Will Present Radio Play Sunday

The Empty Chairs, an original United Jewish Appeal Passover radio drama, starring Academy Award Winner Mercedes McCambridge and Arnold Moss, will be presented on Station WKNY on Sunday, March 29, from 7:30 to 8 p. m.

The Empty Chairs is a poignant dramatization of the current plight of Jews behind the Iron Curtain as it tells the story of an elderly recent immigrant to Israel who waits hopefully on the eve of the Passover festival for the arrival of his family from an Eastern European country. The radio play, with its emphasis on men, women and children facing danger in lands of bondage, recalls the 4,000 year old Biblical epic of man's first great struggle and victory over tyranny and oppression.

The Empty Chairs, written especially for the UJA by Samuel Elkin, will be produced by Himan Brown, UJA National Radio Chairman, who has been responsible for the production of numerous distinguished radio programs previously presented by the United Jewish Appeal.

Following the dramatic portion of the program, listeners will hear a brief report by Herman J. Eaton, Chairman of the Kingston United Jewish Welfare Fund, on the aims of the UJA in its fifteenth year of life saving service.

The United Jewish Appeal makes possible the immigration, settlement, welfare and rehabilitation programs of three constituent agencies. These are the United Israel Appeal, Joint Distribution Committee and United Service for New Americans.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

New York (AP)—Would you like to receive a movie-of-the-month, mass produced so cheaply you could show it in your home once and then throw it down the incinerator?

This is just one of the dreams in the busy head of Sherman Mills Fairchild, one of the most agile minds of our generation.

"We haven't scratched the surface in the search for an easier, better, fuller life," said Fairchild. "The big problem is to overcome people's inertia against change."

Fairchild is all for change. He has built a fabulous, multi-million-dollar career on one word:

"Why?"

He was born with a silver spoon in his mouth—and a golden question mark.

Took It Apart

When he was a teen-ager, his wealthy parents presented him with a $10,000 Locomobile. Instead of wrapping it around a tree or taking the high school girls out for a spin, Sherman drove the car into a garage and began taking it apart to see what made it work.

Since then Fairchild invested or pioneered in the development of the aerial camera, the modern cabin airplane, cargo aircraft, the first folding wing airplane, the automatic newspaper engraving plant, recording equipment, and the atomic engine.

Today he heads four big firms, holds directorships in four more, and is active in exploiting products in half a dozen fields.

A big handsome man of 56, he looks like a youthful 40, dresses carelessly, enjoys a 14-hour work day. He reads 75 technical journals a month to keep informed.

Pleasure in Problems

"I've tried canned fun—things like vacations and fishing trips that are supposed to relax you—but they don't do that for me," he said. "My biggest pleasure is to take a new problem, and put knobs on it."

By that he means to solve it. His endless inventive curiosity is reflected in his home—it has ramps instead of stairs, a television set that can be wheeled to any part of a room, cranked to any angle.

His only sport is tennis. When he was told it would cost $120,000 to build a winter indoor court, he designed and built a better one for $20,000.

"It isn't enough for a new product to be better—it has to be cheaper, too," he said.

Has 25 Inventions

Fairchild has made at least 25 inventions himself, but doesn't primarily regard himself as an inventor.

"I like to find a need for something," he said, "and then get the right group of people together and solve that need. There is a great gulf between the people with ideas and the people who can finance and carry out those ideas.

"There is a technique into going into new things. It takes time, patience, and determination. Thousands of good inventions have been given up because someone got discouraged."

Fairchild backs ideas with his own money, and has had his failures.

"But I soon forget them," he said, grinning, "and go on to something else."

Has Idea on Beds

"A hospital bed should be hydraulic like a barber chair," he mused. "I figure I could make one for only $20 more than the present hospital bed, but it would take at least $75,000 to convince hospital superintendents they ought to put in better beds."

He is also toying with the idea of building garages on the ferris wheel principle. Feels you could get cars in and out of them faster than ordinary garages or parking lots.

Fairchild lives with an aunt, never was married.

"Been too busy," he explained.

It would be rather hard for a wife to keep up with him.

On Sunday, April 12, holy communion will be observed and new members will be received. Those desiring to unite with the church either by letter or confession may notify the Rev. Mr. Tysse immediately so that he may obtain letters.

He was born with a silver spoon in his mouth—and a golden question mark.

Took It Apart

When he was a teen-ager, his wealthy parents presented him with a $10,000 Locomobile. Instead of wrapping it around a tree or taking the high school girls out for a spin, Sherman drove the car into a garage and began taking it apart to see what made it work.

Since then Fairchild invested or pioneered in the development of the aerial camera, the modern cabin airplane, cargo aircraft, the first folding wing airplane, the automatic newspaper engraving plant, recording equipment, and the atomic engine.

Today he heads four big firms, holds directorships in four more, and is active in exploiting products in half a dozen fields.

A big handsome man of 56, he looks like a youthful 40, dresses carelessly, enjoys a 14-hour work day. He reads 75 technical journals a month to keep informed.

Pleasure in Problems

"I've tried canned fun—things like vacations and fishing trips that are supposed to relax you—but they don't do that for me," he said. "My biggest pleasure is to take a new problem, and put knobs on it."

By that he means to solve it. His endless inventive curiosity is reflected in his home—it has ramps instead of stairs, a television set that can be wheeled to any part of a room, cranked to any angle.

His only sport is tennis. When he was told it would cost $120,000 to build a winter indoor court, he designed and built a better one for $20,000.

"It isn't enough for a new product to be better—it has to be cheaper, too," he said.

Has 25 Inventions

Fairchild has made at least 25 inventions himself, but doesn't primarily regard himself as an inventor.

"I like to find a need for something," he said, "and then get the right group of people together and solve that need. There is a great gulf between the people with ideas and the people who can finance and carry out those ideas.

"There is a technique into going into new things. It takes time, patience, and determination. Thousands of good inventions have been given up because someone got discouraged."

Fairchild backs ideas with his own money, and has had his failures.

"But I soon forget them," he said, grinning, "and go on to something else."

Has Idea on Beds

"A hospital bed should be hydraulic like a barber chair," he mused. "I figure I could make one for only $20 more than the present hospital bed, but it would take at least $75,000 to convince hospital superintendents they ought to put in better beds."

He is also toying with the idea of building garages on the ferris wheel principle. Feels you could get cars in and out of them faster than ordinary garages or parking lots.

Fairchild lives with an aunt, never was married.

"Been too busy," he explained.

Presby Men Name Division Leaders

Alton C. Blackwell and Walter Dunham have been appointed chairmen respectively of Division A and Division B of the recently organized Colonial City Chapter of Presbyterian Men, at the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street and Tremper avenue. The chapter is affiliated with the National Council of Presbyterian Men, which was organized five years ago and now has about 2,000 chapters in churches of the denomination throughout the country.

These appointments were made last night at the first meeting of the chapter's executive committee, which also designated as first and second vice chairman for each division the following: Division A, Chester A. Balz, Jr., and Kermit Gordon Craig; Division B, Ward B. Tongue and Everett Howard. Fred H. Stang was designated to serve as chairman of the program committee; and William H. Kuehn, chairman of the membership and attendance committee. All of these chairmen and vice-chairmen automatically become part of the executive committee which will now proceed under the Every Man Plan, to organize all men of the church into units of five men, each with a chairman.

The next meeting of the chapter, which was set for Monday, April 6, has been postponed to a later date in order that the expanding executive committee may have time to consider more thoroughly the necessary procedures and plans for the chapter and to appoint members of the standing committees and chairmen for the units.

The application for a charter from the National Council for the local chapter has been made; and when the charter is received a Charter Night program will be a major event in the life of the new organization.

Attending last night's meeting were these officers of the chapter: Casper Souers, president; Edsil P. Flowers, vice president; Howard Stephens, secretary; Robert C. Murray, treasurer and the pastor, the Rev. William J. McVey.

If a driver were able to descend six miles into ocean depths, he would have to withstand six tons of pressure against every square inch of his body.

Enough Ammunition

Washington, March 26 (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the ammunition situation in Korea now is perfectly sound as compared with the type of operations going on there. The President made this statement at a news conference during which he also defended his nomination of Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen to be ambassador to Russia. He said Bohlen, who has come under fire from a group of Republican senators, is the best qualified man and the nomination sticks.

Traveled as Funeral

Berlin, March 26 (AP)—A group of East Germans fled to West Berlin recently disguised as a funeral cortege, dressed in black and carrying huge wreaths, it was disclosed today. A report compiled by the U. S. high commission here said the group, residents of a Russian zone village near Magdeburg, rode into West Berlin on an elevated train without arousing the suspicion of Communist police. After crossing the border, they reported to refugee headquarters and asked for asylum.

Will Protest Holding

London, March 26 (AP)—Britain today instructed her envoy in Red China to protest the holding of three Americans, taken off a yacht near Hong Kong on Saturday. The protest is on behalf of the United States government, which does not recognize the Chinese Communist government of Mao Tze-tung. The Americans, taken off the yacht Kert, are Merchant Marine Captain Ben Krasner and two news correspondents, Richard Applegate and Don Dixon.

Mystery Man Sought

London, March 26 (AP)—Scotland Yard pressed grimly ahead today with an inch-by-inch search of the drab "murder flat in Rillington Place" which already has yielded up the bodies of four strangled women—one of them six months pregnant. Police in all parts of the British Isles meanwhile were on the lookout for John Christie, dapper, 55-year-old mystery man who had lived for 15 years in the seedy little tenement apartment in London's rundown Notting Hill district. The gruesome discovery recalled testimony of a 1949 murder defendant purporting to link Christie with the strangling of a woman and child in the same house. Christie denied the accusations and the defendant, the woman's husband, was executed.

Says Report Unfounded

Oslo, Norway, March 26 (AP)—A spokesman for the Norwegian Nobel Committee called "preposterous" today a report published abroad that Harry S. Truman heads the list of this year's nominations for the peace prize. "The only action the Nobel Committee has taken so far is to arrange the names of the nominees in alphabetical order," he said. "The 'T's' come way down the list. No decision on a favorite will be taken before the committee starts its work in early spring. Even then there is usually no clear-cut favorite leading the field."

Adopt Tribute to Pratt

A resolution was adopted in tribute to the late George W. Pratt, of Highland, who had served on the authority for four and a half years.

It said in part that "the loss of George W. Pratt, his active presence, sound judgment, and decision, combined with his pleasing personality and fairness of mind in both thought and deed, is and will be keenly felt by the members of this authority.

May Summon Hiss

Washington, March 26 (AP)—A proposal that Alger Hiss be called from prison to testify about the hiring of United Nation staff members comes up for consideration today by a House Judiciary Subcommittee. It was made by Rep. Byron Rogers (D.-Colo.), only Democratic member of the group investigating alleged Communist infiltration of the UN staff. Meanwhile, the group called John W. Ford, director of security for the State Department, to follow up testimony given earlier this week by William L. Franklin, his special assistant.

Vote on Bohlen

into the record a letter from Grew stating "there is no shadow of doubt in my mind that he (Bohlen) is the best man for the (Moscow) job now."

Taft apparently had succeeded in removing as a big issue in the prospective vote the question of whether R. W. Scott McLeod, new State Department security officer, had opposed Bohlen's security clearance by Secretary of State Dulles.

The majority leader said he had a letter from McLeod saying that the only file he saw on Bohlen was the FBI summary sent over to the State Department, and which Taft and Sparkman (D.-Ala.) spent three hours Tuesday reading. Taft told the Senate he'd rather rely on his own judgment than McLeod's.

Six Spies Plead Guilty

Warsaw, Poland, March 26 (AP)—Six Poles have pleaded guilty before a Stettin military court to charges of spying for the American intelligence service, Warsaw newspapers reported. Howard Pleads Guilty

New York, March 26 (AP)—John Robert Howard, former husband of actress Diana Barrymore, pleaded guilty today to a charge of transporting a woman across state lines for prostitution purposes. Howard, fifth ranking professional tennis player, was sentenced immediately by Federal Judge Gregory F. Noonan to a year and a day in jail. The 28-year-old defendant had been accused of taking a woman from California to New York in 1949.

Presby Men Name Division Leaders

Alton C. Blackwell and Walter Dunham have been appointed chairmen respectively of Division A and Division B of the recently organized Colonial City Chapter of Presbyterian Men, at the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street and Tremper avenue. The chapter is affiliated with the National Council of Presbyterian Men, which was organized five years ago and now has about 2,000 chapters in churches of the denomination throughout the country.

These appointments were made last night at the first meeting of the chapter's executive committee, which also designated as first and second vice chairman for each division the following: Division A, Chester A. Balz, Jr., and Kermit Gordon Craig; Division B, Ward B. Tongue and Everett Howard. Fred H. Stang was designated to serve as chairman of the program committee; and William H. Kuehn, chairman of the membership and attendance committee. All of these chairmen and vice-chairmen automatically become part of the executive committee which will now proceed under the Every Man Plan, to organize all men of the church into units of five men, each with a chairman.

The next meeting of the chapter, which was set for Monday, April 6, has been postponed to a later date in order that the expanding executive committee may have time to consider more thoroughly the necessary procedures and plans for the chapter and to appoint members of the standing committees and chairmen for the units.

The application for a charter from the National Council for the local chapter has been made; and when the charter is received a Charter Night program will be a major event in the life of the new organization.

Attending last night's meeting were these officers of the chapter: Casper Souers, president; Edsil P. Flowers, vice president; Howard Stephens, secretary; Robert C. Murray, treasurer and the pastor, the Rev. William J. McVey.

If a driver were able to descend six miles into ocean depths, he would have to withstand six tons of pressure against every square inch of his body.

He said Bohlen, who has come under fire from a group of Republican senators, is the best qualified man and the nomination sticks.

Mystery Man Sought

London, March 26 (AP)—Scotland Yard pressed grimly ahead today with an inch-by-inch search of the drab "murder flat in Rillington Place" which already has yielded up the bodies of four strangled women—one of them six months pregnant. Police in all parts of the British Isles meanwhile were on the lookout for John Christie, dapper, 55-year-old mystery man who had lived for 15 years in the seedy little tenement apartment in London's rundown Notting Hill district. The gruesome discovery recalled testimony of a 1949 murder defendant purporting to link Christie with the strangling of a woman and child in the same house. Christie denied the accusations and the defendant, the woman's husband, was executed.

Says Report Unfounded

Oslo, Norway, March 26 (AP)—A spokesman for the Norwegian Nobel Committee called "preposterous" today a report published abroad that Harry S. Truman heads the list of this year's nominations for the peace prize. "The only action the Nobel Committee has taken so far is to arrange the names of the nominees in alphabetical order," he said. "The 'T's' come way down the list. No decision on a favorite will be taken before the committee starts its work in early spring. Even then there is usually no clear-cut favorite leading the field."

Adopt Tribute to Pratt

A resolution was adopted in tribute to the late George W. Pratt, of Highland, who had served on the authority for four and a half years.

It said in part that "the loss of George W. Pratt, his active presence, sound judgment, and decision, combined with his pleasing personality and fairness of mind in both thought and deed, is and will be keenly felt by the members of this authority.

May Summon Hiss

Washington, March 26 (AP)—A proposal that Alger Hiss be called from prison to testify about the hiring of United Nation staff members comes up for consideration today by a House Judiciary Subcommittee. It was made by Rep. Byron Rogers (D.-Colo.), only Democratic member of the group investigating alleged Communist infiltration of the UN staff. Meanwhile, the group called John W. Taft apparently had succeeded in removing as a big issue in the prospective vote the question of whether R. W. Scott McLeod, new State Department security officer, had opposed Bohlen's security clearance by Secretary of State Dulles.

The majority leader said he had a letter from McLeod saying that the only file he saw on Bohlen was the FBI summary sent over to the State Department, and which Taft and Sparkman (D.-Ala.) spent three hours Tuesday reading. Taft told the Senate he'd rather rely on his own judgment than McLeod's.

Try Cowboy Stew, Corn Chips

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Southwest, Tex.—Most of the Texans I saw on my 1000-mile tour of the Lone Star State were tall, lean, handsome. There's a spacious rumor that many of them—especially the cowboys—were raised on chuck-wagon stew.

Nell Morris, recognized authority on Texas cooking, says the stew's rightful name is "Vaquero Guisado." Years ago, the majority of the Texas cowhands were of Mexican origin, she explained. Guisado in Mexican for stew and Vaquero is Mexican for cowboy.

On the huge South Texas ranches which sprawled over millions of acres, the hot stew was served from the chuck wagon, especially during round-ups and branding times, to as many as 100 ravenous men at a time.

But everyone hasn't a cowboy's appetite. So Miss Morris has brought her recipe for "Vaquero Guisado" into line with the American menu of men and women who don't roam the Texas ranges, and has added the crunchy touch of corn chips, another Texas specialty.

Vaquero Guisado with Corn Chips (Serves 6)

One pound chuck or lean beef cut into 2-inch cubes, 3 tablespoons flour, 4 tablespoons cooking oil, ½ teaspoon monosodium glutamate, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons horseradish, 2 cups canned tomatoes, 2 medium onions (quartered), 2 medium potatoes (cubed), 2 medium carrots (cubed), 1 cup lightly crushed corn chips (measured after crushing).

Salt beef, dredge in flour and brown in cooking oil in skillet. Add seasonings, tomatoes, onions, potatoes and carrots. Place ½ cup of corn chips in a casserole, then add the beef mixture. Top with the remaining corn chips and cover. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for one hour.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Stewed dried fruit, soft-cooked eggs, hot-cross buns, butter or margarine, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Creamed tuna and olives on toast, celery, soft rolls, butter or margarine, fruit cup, tea, milk.

DINNER: Cowboy stew with corn chips, heated crusty bread, butter or margarine, cheese in hunks, lettuce, sliced green pepper and grapefruit-section salad, French dressing, apple pie, coffee, milk.

To Vote on Macy Strike

New York, March 26 (AP)—A membership vote on whether to authorize a strike against Macy Department stores at Herald Square, Jamaica, Flatbush, Parkchester and White Plains, will be taken Wednesday night, April 8, a union spokesman announced last night. Local 1-S, United Department Store Workers of America, CIO, said the company has refused to bargain "in good faith." The union, representing more than 8,000 employes in the five stores seeks wage and pension improvements, a 35 hour week instead of the present 40 hours and other benefits. Comment from the company was not immediately available.

To a lady who doesn't know peas

Peas like this

are spinster peas—been left on the vine too long. They're still fairly good looking, but they just aren't sweet sixteen—their skins are tough, their flavor is woody. When you buy cheap frozen peas, you get exactly that—you get peas that don't have the top-market value when picked or the top flavor when cooked.

Peas like this have just reached their youthful best—skins so tender they'll pop if you pinch 'em. Young, plump and juicy, these are the peas you get when you buy Dulany Frozen Peas —peas picked at the peak of their goodness, marvelously tender, wonderfully flavored. These are the kind to ask for when you want your dinner to be extra good.

To Enforce Truck Markings on May 1

State police of the Kingston station have been advised that the law requiring suitable markings for vehicles in the truck class will not be enforced until May 1, it was announced today.

It was pointed out that there had been an extension to that date in order to afford truckers time for the proper insertion of markings.

To Vote on Macy Strike

New York, March 26 (AP)—A membership vote on whether to authorize a strike against Macy Department stores at Herald Square, Jamaica, Flatbush, Parkchester and White Plains, will be taken Wednesday night, April 8, a union spokesman announced last night. Local 1-S, United Department Store Workers of America, CIO, said the company has refused to bargain "in good faith." The union, representing more than 8,000 employes in the five stores seeks wage and pension improvements, a 35 hour week instead of the present 40 hours and other benefits. Comment from the company was not immediately available.

Try Cowboy Stew, Corn Chips

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Southwest, Tex.—Most of the Texans I saw on my 1000-mile tour of the Lone Star State were tall, lean, handsome. There's a spacious rumor that many of them—especially the cowboys—were raised on chuck-wagon stew.

Nell Morris, recognized authority on Texas cooking, says the stew's rightful name is "Vaquero Guisado." Years ago, the majority of the Texas cowhands were of Mexican origin, she explained. Guisado in Mexican for stew and Vaquero is Mexican for cowboy.

On the huge South Texas ranches which sprawled over millions of acres, the hot stew was served from the chuck wagon, especially during round-ups and branding times, to as many as 100 ravenous men at a time.

But everyone hasn't a cowboy's appetite. So Miss Morris has brought her recipe for "Vaquero Guisado" into line with the American menu of men and women who don't roam the Texas ranges, and has added the crunchy touch of corn chips, another Texas specialty.

Vaquero Guisado with Corn Chips (Serves 6)

One pound chuck or lean beef cut into 2-inch cubes, 3 tablespoons flour, 4 tablespoons cooking oil, ½ teaspoon monosodium glutamate, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons horseradish, 2 cups canned tomatoes, 2 medium onions (quartered), 2 medium potatoes (cubed), 2 medium carrots (cubed), 1 cup lightly crushed corn chips (measured after crushing).

Salt beef, dredge in flour and brown in cooking oil in skillet. Add seasonings, tomatoes, onions, potatoes and carrots. Place ½ cup of corn chips in a casserole, then add the beef mixture. Top with the remaining corn chips and cover. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for one hour.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Stewed dried fruit, soft-cooked eggs, hot-cross buns, butter or margarine, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Creamed tuna and olives on toast, celery, soft rolls, butter or margarine, fruit cup, tea, milk.

DINNER: Cowboy stew with corn chips, heated crusty bread, butter or margarine, cheese in hunks, lettuce, sliced green pepper and grapefruit-section salad, French dressing, apple pie, coffee, milk.

Early Spring Cool Spell Prevails Over Most of US

(By The Associated Press)

Chilly, blustery weather extended over wide areas in the eastern half of the nation today as an early spring season cool spell continued.

Snow flurries fell in parts of Tennessee and Kentucky and temperatures dropped to near freezing in some southern sections. The cool and windy belt extended east of the Mississippi to the eastern seaboard and dipped into parts of Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Kentucky and Tennessee.

It was spring-like over most areas west of the Mississippi. Some warmer weather was headed for the chilled midwest.

Generally fair weather was reported in the southeastern states and west of the Mississippi except for light showers along the Washington coast and parts of Montana.

It was 95 yesterday in Presidio, Tex.; 91 in Yuma, Ariz., and 90 in Blythe, Calif.

Flood Covers 14,000 Acres in Lewis County

Lowville, March 26 (AP)—More than 14,000 acres of Lewis county farmland were under floodwaters of the Black and Moose rivers today, and one area was cut off from fire and hospital services.

Levi P. Gaylord, county highway superintendent, reported the Castorland area had been cut off from fire protection and access to hospitals.

There were no reports of persons being forced to flee the homes.

Gaylord estimated the flood acreage last night. He said t waters still were rising and pro ably would cover as much 15,000 acres.

Plattekill

Plattekill, March 25—Word has been received here of the death of Gilbert Ward, formerly of Plattekill, at his late home in Brooklyn, after a long illness. Survivors include his widow, Harriet Ward, a son Gilbert J. Ward and a sister, Mrs. Emma Darrell of Miami, Fla. Burial was in the Evergreen Cemetery in Brooklyn.

The final card party in a series of the popular entertainment conducted by members of the service and hospitality committee of the Plattekill Grange will be held Monday night, March 30 at the Grange Hall. On Saturday evening, members of the committee held a party in the auditorium, while the men folks played cards in the lower section of the hall. At the next meeting of the organization, scheduled for Saturday evening, April 4, a molasses cookie contest will be conducted, a preliminary step to entering the annual baking contest, sponsored by the New York State Grange and the American Agriculturist. First and second prizes will be awarded at the Saturday night contest, and the first prize winner will be eligible to compete in the county contest and finally in the state contest.

The new house which Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Paltridge are having built on the Tuckers Corners road, is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Ira Merwin is on the committee in charge of a supper and auction to be held at the New Hurley Reformed Church during May. Contributions or the auction will be welcomed by members of the committee.

Plans are continuing for the turkey dinner to be served by the Plattekill Fire Department at Villa Garcia Monday night, April 6. The firemen have ordered a new siren for the station.

The cockleburr carries its seeds to distant spots by catching on fur-bearing animals or to clothing of passers-by.

Binghamton Press Declares Wicks Proves Dewey's Best Senate Leader

The Binghamton Press following the recent closing of the 1953 sessions of the state legislature declared that Senate Majority Leader Arthur H. Wicks of this city proved the best leader in the Senate that Governor Dewey has had since he took over in Albany.

Under the byline of "Bi-Partisan," the Binghamton paper published the following article commenting on the leadership of Senator Wicks:

Albany—Arthur H. Wicks, the Ulster county legislator and politician, is the most effective Republican majority leader Gov. Thomas E. Dewey has had in the Senate since he took over in Albany.

During his 10 years as governor, Dewey has worked with Benjamin Feinberg, now head of the State Public Service Commission, and Joe R. Hanley, former lieutenant-governor and now counsel to the State Division of Veterans Affairs.

Most observers will agree that both Feinberg and Hanley are much more effective speakers, but when it comes to gettings things done they are not in the same class with Wicks. Perhaps it is because Wicks knows the rough-and-tumble tricks in politics.

Feinberg was Dewey's legislative spokesman when the governor first took over the executive offices. Dewey found that while Feinberg kept his Republican colleagues fairly well in line, he just wasn't there when the going got real rough. Hanley was not a Dewey type of leader. He was a good fellow and well-liked by his colleagues, but his long association with other senators prevented him from "snapping the whip" as the old saying goes.

Dewey has found it astounding to work with Wicks. He finds him loyal, but most of all dependable. Wicks is an old believer in 29 votes—that's a majority in the Senate—can do no wrong. And the GOP leader doesn't care where he gets them as long as they are on his side while the roll is called.

When he needed one vote for Dewey's rent control bill a couple of years back he pleaded and pleaded with his Republican senators but he got nowhere. So, he decided to turn on the Democrats. The Democrats, especially the leaders and state chairman, were reportedly solidly against the bill. Wicks needed one vote.

So he called on his old friend Dan O'Connell, Albany county Democratic leader. O'Connell and Wicks are in the same judicial district. They have had previous dealings. So, when Wicks said his leadership was at stake, O'Connell promised him the necessary vote.

All day long O'Connell refused to answer the telephone, because state Democratic leaders had heard rumors that the Albany county senator was going to bolt and give Wicks his much-needed vote. Even the senator didn't know just how he was going to vote until a few minutes before the clerk started to call the roll. But, when the final tally was in, the Albany senator had been recorded with the Republicans and, especially Wicks.

SENATOR A. H. WICKS

Wicks rules the Senate with an iron hand. For instance if a Republican senator asks for more than enough stenographic help, he is politely, but firmly turned down unless he really turns out the work. Wicks doesn't go for individual members "padding" their pay rolls. They're got to turn out the work.

If one of the Republican senators tries to make a local campaign stump out of the Senate floor Wicks warns the legislator that he will invoke the "gag" rule. Also, if a Republican senator "gets tough," the majority leader points out that he may be removed from various committees.

"When you've got 29 votes," Wicks tells the Senate, "you can act tough. Without them, just forget it."

There is a possibility that Dewey may wake up one of these spring mornings and find Wicks has left the Senate. He admits it would be a blow to his administration.

According to informed sources, Wicks has been offered the job as Collector of the Port of New York.

Non-Residential County Building Totals $589,900

Plans for construction or reconstruction of non-residential buildings submitted to the State Labor Department's Division of Industrial Hygiene in Ulster county during 1952 totaled 30 and estimated construction costs amounted to $589,900, Acting Industrial Commissioner Thomas F. Moore, Jr., announced today. This compares with 29 plans and $558,850 estimated construction costs during 1951.

Total figures, which encompass practically all non-residential construction, except on farms, outside New York, showed an increase last year in the number of plans submitted over the total for 1951—3,500 as compared to 3,146. But estimated construction costs amounted to $142,886,621, almost $10,000,000 less than the $152,654,880 figure for 1951.

Nassau county led the state, excluding New York, during 1952, with 947 building plans submitted for approval, but its $26,048,000 estimated cost of construction ranked second to Erie county's $34,336,560.

In 1951, Nassau county led the state both with 822 building plans submitted for approval and $32,240,895 in estimated cost of construction.

Plattekill

Plattekill, March 25—Word has been received here of the death of Gilbert Ward, formerly of Plattekill, at his late home in Brooklyn, after a long illness. Survivors include his widow, Harriet Ward, a son Gilbert J. Ward and a sister, Mrs. Emma Darrell of Miami, Fla. Burial was in the Evergreen Cemetery in Brooklyn.

The final card party in a series of the popular entertainment conducted by members of the service and hospitality committee of the Plattekill Grange will be held Monday night, March 30 at the Grange Hall. On Saturday evening, members of the committee held a party in the auditorium, while the men folks played cards in the lower section of the hall. At the next meeting of the organization, scheduled for Saturday evening, April 4, a molasses cookie contest will be conducted, a preliminary step to entering the annual baking contest, sponsored by the New York State Grange and the American Agriculturist. First and second prizes will be awarded at the Saturday night contest, and the first prize winner will be eligible to compete in the county contest and finally in the state contest.

The new house which Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Paltridge are having built on the Tuckers Corners road, is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Ira Merwin is on the committee in charge of a supper and auction to be held at the New Hurley Reformed Church during May. Contributions or the auction will be welcomed by members of the committee.

Plans are continuing for the turkey dinner to be served by the Plattekill Fire Department at Villa Garcia Monday night, April 6. The firemen have ordered a new siren for the station.

The cockleburr carries its seeds to distant spots by catching on fur-bearing animals or to clothing of passers-by.

Binghamton Press Declares Wicks Proves Dewey's Best Senate Leader

The Binghamton Press following the recent closing of the 1953 sessions of the state legislature declared that Senate Majority Leader Arthur H. Wicks of this city proved the best leader in the Senate that Governor Dewey has had since he took over in Albany.

Under the byline of "Bi-Partisan," the Binghamton paper published the following article commenting on the leadership of Senator Wicks:

Albany—Arthur H. Wicks, the Ulster county legislator and politician, is the most effective Republican majority leader Gov. Thomas E. Dewey has had in the Senate since he took over in Albany.

During his 10 years as governor, Dewey has worked with Benjamin Feinberg, now head of the State Public Service Commission, and Joe R. Hanley, former lieutenant-governor and now counsel to the State Division of Veterans Affairs.

Most observers will agree that both Feinberg and Hanley are much more effective speakers, but when it comes to gettings things done they are not in the same class with Wicks. Perhaps it is because Wicks knows the rough-and-tumble tricks in politics.

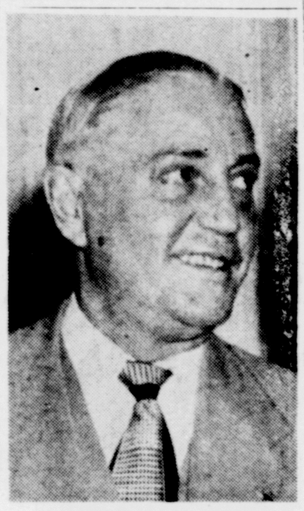
Feinberg was Dewey's legislative spokesman when the governor first took over the executive offices. Dewey found that while Feinberg kept his Republican colleagues fairly well in line, he just wasn't there when the going got real rough. Hanley was not a Dewey type of leader. He was a good fellow and well-liked by his colleagues, but his long association with other senators prevented him from "snapping the whip" as the old saying goes.

Dewey has found it astounding to work with Wicks. He finds him loyal, but most of all dependable. Wicks is an old believer in 29 votes—that's a majority in the Senate—can do no wrong. And the GOP leader doesn't care where he gets them as long as they are on his side while the roll is called.

When he needed one vote for Dewey's rent control bill a couple of years back he pleaded and pleaded with his Republican senators but he got nowhere. So, he decided to turn on the Democrats. The Democrats, especially the leaders and state chairman, were reportedly solidly against the bill. Wicks needed one vote.

So he called on his old friend Dan O'Connell, Albany county Democratic leader. O'Connell and Wicks are in the same judicial district. They have had previous dealings. So, when Wicks said his leadership was at stake, O'Connell promised him the necessary vote.

All day long O'Connell refused to answer the telephone, because state Democratic leaders had heard rumors that the Albany county senator was going to bolt and give Wicks his much-needed vote. Even the senator didn't know just how he was going to vote until a few minutes before the clerk started to call the roll. But, when the final tally was in, the Albany senator had been recorded with the Republicans and, especially Wicks.



SENATOR A. H. WICKS

Wicks rules the Senate with an iron hand. For instance if a Republican senator asks for more than enough stenographic help, he is politely, but firmly turned down unless he really turns out the work. Wicks doesn't go for individual members "padding" their pay rolls. They're got to turn out the work.

If one of the Republican senators tries to make a local campaign stump out of the Senate floor Wicks warns the legislator that he will invoke the "gag" rule. Also, if a Republican senator "gets tough," the majority leader points out that he may be removed from various committees.

"When you've got 29 votes," Wicks tells the Senate, "you can act tough. Without them, just forget it."

There is a possibility that Dewey may wake up one of these spring mornings and find Wicks has left the Senate. He admits it would be a blow to his administration.

According to informed sources, Wicks has been offered the job as Collector of the Port of New York.

Non-Residential County Building Totals $589,900

Plans for construction or reconstruction of non-residential buildings submitted to the State Labor Department's Division of Industrial Hygiene in Ulster county during 1952 totaled 30 and estimated construction costs amounted to $589,900, Acting Industrial Commissioner Thomas F. Moore, Jr., announced today. This compares with 29 plans and $558,850 estimated construction costs during 1951.

Total figures, which encompass practically all non-residential construction, except on farms, outside New York, showed an increase last year in the number of plans submitted over the total for 1951—3,500 as compared to 3,146. But estimated construction costs amounted to $142,886,621, almost $10,000,000 less than the $152,654,880 figure for 1951.

Nassau county led the state, excluding New York, during 1952, with 947 building plans submitted for approval, but its $26,048,000 estimated cost of construction ranked second to Erie county's $34,336,560.

In 1951, Nassau county led the state both with 822 building plans submitted for approval and $32,240,895 in estimated cost of construction.

State Troopers Recruit Strong Men for 300 Jobs

By BILL DAVIDSON

Albany, March 25 (AP)—Roving State Troopers searched the cities and rural four-corners today for 300 "wanted" men in a statewide manhunt ordered by Gov. Dewey.

Descriptions of the wanted men have been circulated to every state police barracks and substation in the state. The roundup is expected to be more difficult than the periodic apprenhension of slot-machine gangs and policy-slip writers.

The "culprits" must be U. S. citizens, between 21 and 40, with a high school education, in good health, not less than five feet, eight inches tall, of good character and have a yen for patrolling state highways in natty grey uniforms and speedy cars.

Dewey put out the pick-up order in an effort to recruit an additional 300 troopers for an expanded highway patrol program. The governor thinks a heavier patrol might help cut down reckless driving and a resultant highway death toll.

Must Get Men First

The 1953 Legislature appropriated more than 1½ million dollars for the expansion. To help pay for it, the lawmakers also approved a bill to double the cost of driving licenses.

Of this, $1,169,000 was earmarked for salaries of the new men, their clothing, guns and other equipment. The other $371,000 was set aside for the purchase of 150 new patrol cars and equipment for proposed new trooper substations.

But before the new money is spent, the additional men must be found.

State police officials are not optimistic that the job can be accomplished promptly. But they have started an all-out campaign to enlist as many new privates as possible before the heavy summer vacation traffic gets rolling.

Real Recruiting Job

All troopers have been instructed to contact able-bodied young men to meet on their patrols, and give them a state police pep talk.

Thousands of posters have been circulated throughout the state to announce the competitive examinations. State Police officials are speaking at luncheons and public meetings to enlist the help of civic groups.

Every envelope mailed from State Police Headquarters here is stamped with a special "join-the-troopers" slogan.

The recruiting campaign will be climaxed April 23 when competitive examinations will be held in 18 cities.

Salaries No Attraction

George M. Searle, deputy superintendent, expects the recruiting job to be difficult. Troopers spend long hours on the job, often away from home and family. The starting salary was increased last year to $2,000 annually, plus food and shelter, but still is far below current industrial scales.

On the other hand a young state trooper is a dashing fellow who wears an attractive uniform, gets a lot of healthy fresh air, and commands the respect of the general public.

"Among New York's 15 million people there must be 300 guys who want the job," Searle commented.

Feeds Save Time, Money

Minneapolis (AP) — Bulk delivery of formula feeds for farm animals is bringing "push button" farming a step nearer. Huge tank trucks deliver the feed direct from mills to bins on the farm. After the farmer tells how many animals he has, grain deliveries are made automatically as oil dealers do to oil-heated homes. Bulk feeding saves up to $6 per ton on costs because no feed bags are used.

GE Conference Called Unsatisfactory on Pay

New York, March 26 (AP)—The General Electric Company says it has not changed its wage offer to the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE). Company and union representatives met for several hours yesterday on the wage issue, with a union spokesman terming the conference "completely unsatisfactory."

GE's statement said it "made no change in its offer of last week while the union representatives gave no indication they intended to accept."

A week ago, GE offered its 205,000 workers in 114 plants throughout the nation hourly wage boosts ranging from one and three-fourths cents to five and three-fourths cents, depending upon the category.

Both IUE and the United Electrical Workers (UE), an independent union, turned it down.

The IUE statement yesterday contended that if GE wages kept pace with output the workers would be getting 9½ cents more per hour than they now receive.

IUE and UE represent about 120,000 GE employes. Present wages average $1.88 an hour for production workers.

Portland, Ore. (AP) — It took three weeks to get news he was a father to Sgt. Donald A. Bozich of Portland. A cable was sent to a Tokyo hospital and a picture of his wife and the son was airmailed. But the critically-wounded sergeant was aboard a hospital ship bound for San Francisco. When he arrived he got a telephone call from his wife. Up and around now, he hopes to get home soon to see his son.

BOOK REVIEW

TO THE MOMENT OF TRIUMPH
By Pamela Frankau
370 pp

In her usual smoothly polished prose, Miss Frankau has given a picture in this book of the struggle of four main characters to triumph over forces in their own natures which seek to destroy them; and of their courageous efforts to throw off the domination of a fifth character.

As the story starts, it seems to be merely a sophisticated tale about a group of wealthy, spoiled people with very little purpose in life except to escape boredom. The first scene shows some of them on a luxury liner leaving New York, bound for England. Chief among these is Sir J. G. Baron, highly successful newspaper publisher, surrounded by evidences of his wealth and power - prominent friends, secretaries, and young satellites who serve him. J. G. is a small, pompous man who has risen from lowly origins in Rochester, N. Y., by ruthless, high-handed means and by twice marrying into good families—first to Celia's mother, who left him when Celia was nine; then after her death to brilliant, gay, unfaithful "Kit" who gave him Tobias and Liz and died when Liz was a baby —to British knighthood and a high place in the world of journalism. Insincere and overwhelmingly hypocritical, he dominated his children and his subordinates by fear. He could be kind and cruel by turns and kept those around him in a constant ferment of dread of his unpredictable moods. Despised by his children, they called their state of unrest "Baron Fever."

J. G.'s daughter, Celia, was also aboard the ship, returning, temporarily to her father's large English estate, "Carlington" with her small son, Terry, after her second, and final break with her scoundrelly husband. Beautiful and spoiled, she wishes now only to achieve independence and emotional stability for herself and a peaceful home for Terry.

Another passenger, who for a time threatens Celia's desired status is Harry Levitt, brilliant cartoonist, who like JG has risen from humble beginnings in America, and like him is intensely self-seeking and pro-British. Harry has been engaged by Baron to make cartoons for his newspapers and has gladly burned his bridges to accept the post. Turning over to his wife all of his possessions except five pieces of expensive luggage and the top coat over his arm, he bids "goodbye" to wife and America—he hopes—forever. Because of his unique good looks, his clever wits, his ability as an accomplished liar and his undeniable artistic talent, he is able to easily hold his own with the glittering crowd in which he finds himself. Before the crossing ends, he defied JG in a matter of policy. (After all he found he could not sell America short to amuse a British public) and has made some headway with Celia.

The next scene is laid at' 'Carlington" where we see JG as Lord-of-the-manor and proud host to the great and near great of England. We meet lovely little Liz, Baron's elfin youngest daughter and devoted assumer of the family burdens. She covers many light-hearted escapades of her brother, Tobias until poor Toby pays with his life for a bit of carelessness. That nearly kills his sisters who adored him, and gives Baron an opportunity for ostentatious mourning over the son whom he had never loved.

Last of the four main characters is Anthony Carey. "Thank-God-for-Anthony" as the Baron children named him in imitation of a bombastic remark of JG's. Anthony is a near neighbor, a sculptor, a veteran lamed at Anzio Beach, perfect British type —handsome, blonde, modest and absolutely dependable under any circumstances. The one strong refuge for the drifting young Barons.

That is the cast. There are others worthy of mention, notably beautiful, ageless Catherine de Lille, talented authoress and playwright. So sympathetic and kind to those of her own generation and to the younger as well, as to be greatly misunderstood, and "Time-Clock" Foliot, J. G.'s. housekeeper and secretary who kept Carlington with its host of guests and endless engagements running smoothly.

The astonishing portrayal of the inner agony of one character after an unpremeditated act of duplicity followed by noble retribution and the struggle of each to realize his highest moral potential, is an absorbing story with unusual strange turns and twists until the full meaning of the title is revealed in a surprise and heart-warming manner. A stunning and satisfactory ending to a splendid, thought-provoking book.

Tourney Will Show Many Great Plays

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

"This is my favorite hand from the 1953 Life Masters Individual," my friend, Walt Connors, of Media, Pa., told me the other day. "The bidding was sound and solid, and declarer made his best play at every moment. It was a pleasure to find the right defense against him.

"I held the West cards," Walt told me, "and opened the king of clubs. Declarer won in the dummy and had to decide whether to begin with the diamonds or with the trumps. He correctly decided that his best play to lose only one diamond trick was to play East for a doubleton ten and to lead a low diamond from the dummy at once.

"East, my partner, had to go up with the king of diamonds, since it would have done him no good to play low. This put South in position to lead the jack of diamonds through at his next opportunity, and thus limit the diamond loss to one trick.

"My partner returned the ten of clubs, and I overtook in order to cash the jack and queen. It now looked as though we were going to be held to two clubs.

one diamond and one trump. Fortunately for our side, however, I happened to push out my last club.

"This gave my partner the chance to rise to the occasion by trumping with the seven of hearts. South was forced to overruff with the ten of hearts, and now I had two natural trump tricks! That's why this is my favorite hand. It isn't often, even in a Life Master event, that you get absolutely perfect bidding, with fine play on both sides of the table."

A very pretty hand, to be sure. Walt was too modest to emphasize his own role — but I hope everybody notices what a neat play it was to lead the last club. This was the star play of the hand — which may be another reason Walt remembers it with such affection.

Welcome News Late

Portland, Ore. (AP) — It took three weeks to get news he was a father to Sgt. Donald A. Bozich of Portland. A cable was sent to a Tokyo hospital and a picture of his wife and the son was airmailed. But the critically-wounded sergeant was aboard a hospital ship bound for San Francisco. When he arrived he got a telephone call from his wife. Up and around now, he hopes to get home soon to see his son.

Dry Spell Broken

London, March 26 (AP)—Rain today broke a month-long drouth in northern England, northern Wales, most of Scotland and northern Ireland. The dry spell still prevailed in southern England and the Aberdeen area of eastern Scotland.

BOOK REVIEW

TO THE MOMENT OF TRIUMPH
By Pamela Frankau
370 pp

In her usual smoothly polished prose, Miss Frankau has given a picture in this book of the struggle of four main characters to triumph over forces in their own natures which seek to destroy them; and of their courageous efforts to throw off the domination of a fifth character.

As the story starts, it seems to be merely a sophisticated tale about a group of wealthy, spoiled people with very little purpose in life except to escape boredom. The first scene shows some of them on a luxury liner leaving New York, bound for England. Chief among these is Sir J. G. Baron, highly successful newspaper publisher, surrounded by evidences of his wealth and power - prominent friends, secretaries, and young satellites who serve him. J. G. is a small, pompous man who has risen from lowly origins in Rochester, N. Y., by ruthless, high-handed means and by twice marrying into good families—first to Celia's mother, who left him when Celia was nine; then after her death to brilliant, gay, unfaithful "Kit" who gave him Tobias and Liz and died when Liz was a baby —to British knighthood and a high place in the world of journalism. Insincere and overwhelmingly hypocritical, he dominated his children and his subordinates by fear. He could be kind and cruel by turns and kept those around him in a constant ferment of dread of his unpredictable moods. Despised by his children, they called their state of unrest "Baron Fever."

J. G.'s daughter, Celia, was also aboard the ship, returning, temporarily to her father's large English estate, "Carlington" with her small son, Terry, after her second, and final break with her scoundrelly husband. Beautiful and spoiled, she wishes now only to achieve independence and emotional stability for herself and a peaceful home for Terry.

Another passenger, who for a time threatens Celia's desired status is Harry Levitt, brilliant cartoonist, who like JG has risen from humble beginnings in America, and like him is intensely self-seeking and pro-British. Harry has been engaged by Baron to make cartoons for his newspapers and has gladly burned his bridges to accept the post. Turning over to his wife all of his possessions except five pieces of expensive luggage and the top coat over his arm, he bids "goodbye" to wife and America—he hopes—forever. Because of his unique good looks, his clever wits, his ability as an accomplished liar and his undeniable artistic talent, he is able to easily hold his own with the glittering crowd in which he finds himself. Before the crossing ends, he defied JG in a matter of policy. (After all he found he could not sell America short to amuse a British public) and has made some headway with Celia.

The next scene is laid at' 'Carlington" where we see JG as Lord-of-the-manor and proud host to the great and near great of England. We meet lovely little Liz, Baron's elfin youngest daughter and devoted assumer of the family burdens. She covers many light-hearted escapades of her brother, Tobias until poor Toby pays with his life for a bit of carelessness. That nearly kills his sisters who adored him, and gives Baron an opportunity for ostentatious mourning over the son whom he had never loved.

Last of the four main characters is Anthony Carey. "Thank-God-for-Anthony" as the Baron children named him in imitation of a bombastic remark of JG's. Anthony is a near neighbor, a sculptor, a veteran lamed at Anzio Beach, perfect British type —handsome, blonde, modest and absolutely dependable under any circumstances. The one strong refuge for the drifting young Barons.

That is the cast. There are others worthy of mention, notably beautiful, ageless Catherine de Lille, talented authoress and playwright. So sympathetic and kind to those of her own generation and to the younger as well, as to be greatly misunderstood, and "Time-Clock" Foliot, J. G.'s housekeeper and secretary who kept Carlington with its host of guests and endless engagements running smoothly.

The astonishing portrayal of the inner agony of one character after an unpremeditated act of duplicity followed by noble retribution and the struggle of each to realize his highest moral potential, is an absorbing story with unusual strange turns and twists until the full meaning of the title is revealed in a surprise and heart-warming manner. A stunning and satisfactory ending to a splendid, thought-provoking book.

Trials Eliminated As 16 Cases Are Settled in Talks

Sixteen cases on the Supreme Court calendar have been announced settled by Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth following two days of pre-trial conferences with attorneys.

Pre-trial conferences, during which cases on the calendar are discussed and counsel endeavors to reach an adjustment satisfactory to litigants, were begun in Ulster county some time ago and the plan has resulted in many days of expensive trial work being eliminated at trial terms.

Settled in Two Days

Last week Justice Elsworth excused the jurors until Wednesday for the purpose of holding pre-trial conferences. During those two days of conference the 16 cases were adjusted.

Cases announced settled are:

Berlin, March 26 (AP)—Communist secret police have arrested all 15 directors of the Zeiss optical Works at Jena, in the Soviet zone the West Berlin newspaper Der Abend reported today. Continual "passive resistance" by the Zeiss workers, which had become "unbearable" to the ruling Socialist Unity (Communist) party, was described as the reason for the arrests.

Gets Up to 20 Years For Slaying of Rabbi

New York, March 26 (AP)—Donald Ferrick, 18, was sentenced yesterday to 10 to 20 years in prison for the slaying of a young rabbi in a Brooklyn park.

Last night, Ferrick's chum, 18-year-old Edward Baldwin, who was with him at the time of the shooting, was acquitted of the same charge—first degree manslaughter.

Originally, both youths were charged with first degree murder in the death last June of Rabbi Samuel London, 23. The state contended Ferrick shot London with a .22-caliber rifle on a "dare" by Baldwin.

Ferrick was tried first, the charge was reduced, and he was convicted.

At Baldwin's trial, Ferrick refused to testify against his pal.

Kings County Judge Nathan R. Sobel, who presided at both trials, reduced the first degree murder charge against Baldwin to the lesser charge by amending the indictment.

The 10 to 20 years sentence given Ferrick is the maximum for first degree manslaughter.

Cut in Services, No Pay Raises Is 'Impy' Solution

New York, March 26 (AP)—"Nuisance" taxes, big cuts in municipal services and denial of pay increases for city employes were threatened today as preparation of the municipal budget was rushed to meet the deadline.

Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri began yesterday the job of eliminating a remaining anticipated deficit of 73 million dollars in the budget for the 1953-54 fiscal year starting July 1. April 7 in the deadline for having the budget ready.

Drastic cuts in all 110 city departments appeared in the offing.

The "nuisance" taxes which the city may employ—in part or in full—to help balance the budget have been authorized by the State Legislature in recent years, but never have been adopted by the ctiy administration. They include an overnight parking tax of $60 a year, estimated to yield 25 million dollars; admissions taxes on theaters, 15 millions; sales tax on beer, 9½ millions; tax on coin-operated machines, $500,000.

Impellitteri started out with an anticipated deficit of 173 millions. City officials figure 100 millions of this has been solved by the Board of Estimate's reluctant acceptance of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's transit authority plan, expected to wipe out a transit deficit of 50 millions and to bring a fare increase; and by the prospect of a real estate tax increase of 50 million dollars.

Hinge on Transit Plan

Authority for a 60 million dollar payroll tax—rejected by the Board of Estimate on Tuesday—and for the real estate tax increase were contingent on the city's acceptance of Dewey's transit authority plan under newly-adopted legislation.

As the mayor went back to work on the budget with his fiscal experts yesterday, he said there would be no pay increases for city employes other than those required by law. He indicated that necessary budget cuts might seriously affect all city departments. The mayor also said there would be no dismissals of civil service employes if he could possibly prevent it.

Mayor Scores Halley

The mayor charged City Council President Rudolph Halley, who opposed Dewey's fiscal plan in the Board of Estimate, with making a "demagogic appeal" to the public. Halley has been making radio and television talks assailing the city's acceptance of the bulk of the Dewey program.

Impellitteri plans to fight back over a number of stations tonight.

Halley contends the transit authority, to take over the city's subway and bus systems and put their operation on a paying basis, will bring an increase in the fare from 10 cents to betwen 15 and 20 cents.

The council president has been urging his audiences to appeal to the mayor and Board of Estimate to rescind acceptance of the transit authority plan. Halley has proposed his own plan—shelved by the Board of Estimate—Tuesday—to bypass Dewey's program, retain the 10-cent fare and balance the budget by economies and other means.

Would Tax Payrolls

City Councilman Edward A. Cunningham, Bronx Democrat, proposes that the city avail itself of the payroll tax authorized by the Legislature. Queens Borough President James A. Lundy, minority Republican, was the only member of the Board of Estimate to vote for the tax on Tuesday.

Cunningham, chairman of a special City Council committee on city finances, said he would call a meeting of the committee today to consider his proposal. He said imposition of the payroll tax would take care of 60 millions of the budget deficit and make it possible to avoid "nuisance" taxes and to repeal the $5 and $10 auto tax and 25 per cent surtax on liquor licenses.

Subject Is Announced

The Inspiration of the Easter Season is to be the subject of sermon by the Rev. Dr. Putnam Cady of Fonda, at the Lenten service of worship tonight at 8 o'clock, in the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street and Tremper avenue. Dr. Cady, a former pastor of the church, will be 90 years old next May 13. The public is invited.

Cut in Services, No Pay Raises Is 'Impy' Solution

New York, March 26 (AP)—"Nuisance" taxes, big cuts in municipal services and denial of pay increases for city employes were threatened today as preparation of the municipal budget was rushed to meet the deadline.

Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri began yesterday the job of eliminating a remaining anticipated deficit of 73 million dollars in the budget for the 1953-54 fiscal year starting July 1. April 7 in the deadline for having the budget ready.

Drastic cuts in all 110 city departments appeared in the offing.

The "nuisance" taxes which the city may employ—in part or in full—to help balance the budget have been authorized by the State Legislature in recent years, but never have been adopted by the ctiy administration. They include an overnight parking tax of $60 a year, estimated to yield 25 million dollars; admissions taxes on theaters, 15 millions; sales tax on beer, 9½ millions; tax on coin-operated machines, $500,000.

Impellitteri started out with an anticipated deficit of 173 millions. City officials figure 100 millions of this has been solved by the Board of Estimate's reluctant acceptance of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's transit authority plan, expected to wipe out a transit deficit of 50 millions and to bring a fare increase; and by the prospect of a real estate tax increase of 50 million dollars.

Hinge on Transit Plan

Authority for a 60 million dollar payroll tax—rejected by the Board of Estimate on Tuesday—and for the real estate tax increase were contingent on the city's acceptance of Dewey's transit authority plan under newly-adopted legislation.

As the mayor went back to work on the budget with his fiscal experts yesterday, he said there would be no pay increases for city employes other than those required by law. He indicated that necessary budget cuts might seriously affect all city departments. The mayor also said there would be no dismissals of civil service employes if he could possibly prevent it.

Mayor Scores Halley

The mayor charged City Council President Rudolph Halley, who opposed Dewey's fiscal plan in the Board of Estimate, with making a "demagogic appeal" to the public. Halley has been making radio and television talks assailing the city's acceptance of the bulk of the Dewey program.

Plattekill Gives $863 for Polio

The town of Plattekill has contributed $863.03 towards the 1953 March of Dimes in Ulster county, Miss Ruth Dawes and Mrs. Ella Bowler, co-chairmen, reported today.

The amount was $436.53 over last year's total of $426.50, the co-chairmen pointed out.

High praise was made today by Addison Jones, campaign director and William Kelly, Ulster county chapter chairman, for the outstanding work completed in Plattekill.

The two local polio leaders said they were extremely proud of the Plattekill township report and said the result was typical of a "job well done."

The following report was turned in by Mrs. Dawes and Mrs. Bowler, the latter a daughter of Edward Hartley, past chairman of many Plattekill March of Dimes campaigns:

Plattekill Fire Department, $25; Rod and Gun Club, $25; Villa Nueva, $5; Plattekill Grange, $12; Plattekill fire commissioners, $48; card party, $161.75; iron lungs, $287.13; Russ Carpenter family, $25; Plattekill Home Bureau, $5.

Also, Modena public health nursing committee, $5; Gail Grimm, $10; dance benefit, $206.15; Mrs. Treitlor, $5; play proceeds, $40 and Plattekill Mothers' Club, $3.

Ranchers' Tailor Retires

Victoria, Tex. (AP) — Master tailor Max Stockman, who began his 65-year career as an unpaid apprentice in Latvia and ended as a tailor to Texas cattlemen, has laid down his shears, needle and tape. The 75-year-old Stockman has plied his trade under two Russian czars and eight American Presidents. He became a tailor's apprentice when he was only 11 years old. When Czar Alexander's draft became uncomfortably close, he fled the country.

Friday Niters Meet

The Friday Niters committee met Wednesday afternoon at which time it was decided that the Friday dances should be open only to boys and girls of junior high school age who are willing to comply with YMCA regulations.

At the meeting next Wednesday the committee will examine applications for membership. Elected at the last meeting were Roger Snyder, John Hines, Charles DeCicco, Ronald Cole, Bob Writh, Joseph Natoli, Joseph Giunta, Frank Damis, Bob Fisher, James Martin, Shirley Krom, Elaine Low, Anna Every, Nancy Natoli, Jackie Post, Harriet Diers, Shirley Bowers, Joan Hinkley, Maureen Geuss and Elaine Gallo.

The Apple Dance was introduced Friday night with the help of Vernon Stoutenburgh who furnished the apples. Each couple dances with a single apple in their mouths between them. If the apple was dropped the couple forfeited the dance and became judges. Participating couples were judged on the basis of poise and good dancing form. Beverly Mooers and Ronald Schoonmaker won and received a large well-wrapped and decorated package. After opening a dozen smaller boxes they finally got to the prize, a penny for each, compliments of James Perry, Betty Schoonmaker and the committee.

A mixer and a square set followed and later an elimination skull dance was held, won by Glenn and Lenny Styles, Nancy Boice and George Uhl and Carol Altamari and Bob Quarantino.

Hi-Y Loses Game

The Kingston Hi-Y did not hold a regular meeting last week but Thursday evening played a basketball game with the Jewish Community Center, losing 69 to 64.

The Hi-Y anticipates a program of swimming races with other organizations.

A beginner's swimming class was held last week under the direction of Lou Schafer. Thursday afternoon the advance swimming class met in the pool, passing their swimming qualification test as follows: John Naccarto, Roland Rion, Nicholas Morris, Ronald Short, John DeOlde and Ronald Riggins were recently admitted to the advance swimming class from the beginner's group.

Thursday afternoon a ring-toss tournament was held and won by James Acker.

any other citizen-taxpayer to take sides in public matters. The CIO is a litigious political group, but Justice Douglas did not concede that this fact should have obliged him to keep aloof. Others had questioned the propriety of his conduct.

The brochure of the Sidney Hillman Foundation says Douglas was thus "honored" "as a world spokesman for freedom and economic justice and for his unwavering support of individual liberties."

The brochure boasts that the late Prof. Harold Laski, of the London School of Economics, gave a series of lectures for the "Foundation." It does not mention the fact that Laski was legally adjudged a Communist by a jury in England nor the fact that the new York Times, which regards him as a great man, openly spoke of him as an apologist for communism.

The Friday Niters committee met Wednesday afternoon at which time it was decided that the Friday dances should be open only to boys and girls of junior high school age who are willing to comply with YMCA regulations.

At the meeting next Wednesday the committee will examine applications for membership. Elected at the last meeting were Roger Snyder, John Hines, Charles DeCicco, Ronald Cole, Bob Writh, Joseph Natoli, Joseph Giunta, Frank Damis, Bob Fisher, James Martin, Shirley Krom, Elaine Low, Anna Every, Nancy Natoli, Jackie Post, Harriet Diers, Shirley Bowers, Joan Hinkley, Maureen Geuss and Elaine Gallo.

The Apple Dance was introduced Friday night with the help of Vernon Stoutenburgh who furnished the apples. Each couple dances with a single apple in their mouths between them. If the apple was dropped the couple forfeited the dance and became judges. Participating couples were judged on the basis of poise and good dancing form. Beverly Mooers and Ronald Schoonmaker won and received a large well-wrapped and decorated package. After opening a dozen smaller boxes they finally got to the prize, a penny for each, compliments of James Perry, Betty Schoonmaker and the committee.

A mixer and a square set followed and later an elimination skull dance was held, won by Glenn and Lenny Styles, Nancy Boice and George Uhl and Carol Altamari and Bob Quarantino.

Hi-Y Loses Game

The Kingston Hi-Y did not hold a regular meeting last week but Thursday evening played a basketball game with the Jewish Community Center, losing 69 to 64.

The Hi-Y anticipates a program of swimming races with other organizations.

A beginner's swimming class was held last week under the direction of Lou Schafer. Thursday afternoon the advance swimming class met in the pool, passing their swimming qualification test as follows: John Naccarto, Roland Rion, Nicholas Morris, Ronald Short. John DeOlde and Ronald Riggins were recently admitted to the advance swimming class from the beginner's group.

As Pegler Sees It

any other citizen-taxpayer to take sides in public matters. The CIO is a litigious political group, but Justice Douglas did not concede that this fact should have obliged him to keep aloof. Others had questioned the propriety of his conduct.

The brochure of the Sidney Hillman Foundation says Douglas was thus "honored" "as a world spokesman for freedom and economic justice and for his unwavering support of individual liberties."

The brochure boasts that the late Prof. Harold Laski, of the London School of Economics, gave a series of lectures for the "Foundation." It does not mention the fact that Laski was legally adjudged a Communist by a jury in England nor the fact that the new York Times, which regards him as a great man, openly spoke of him as an apologist for communism.

Anthony Erena Is Speaker at Moose Women's Program

A chapter program was held Sunday, under the auspices of the Women of the Moose, when Anthony Erena, president of the New York State Moose Association, described Mooseheart and Moosehaven, supported by the Moose on a national scale. Miss Katherine M. Murphy, executive secretary, UC Tuberculosis and Health Association, also spoke to the large group.

Mr. Erena commended the local women not only for their contributions to Moose organizations, but for the members' interest and participation in local activities. He described Mooseheart, known as the child city in Illinois. At present, 800 children of deceased members are being cared for through high school age. "The children who show a desire to continue their education beyond the high school level, are given every opportunity to do so, with the understanding that at some future time, they will reimburse the organization for college advances."

With regard to Moosehaven which is located in Orange Park, Fla., the speaker said the purpose of the home is to keep aged couples together. Everything of benefit to older persons has been considered in the construction of these buildings which are all one-story high, and have hospital facilities, as well as all medical services.

In her talk, Miss Murphy commented upon the organization of TB hospital, and spoke of the value of the X-ray survey conducted frequently in the county.

Three new members were initiated into the chapter. They are Catherine McCloseky, Mrs. Angeline Carputo, and Helen Cherney.

Following the meeting, a social hour followed with dancing and refreshments. Mrs. Betty Loeb was chairman of the social service program.

Zephaniah Chapter, B'nai B'rith Has Speaker, Elections

The regular meeting of Zephaniah Chapter, B'nai B'rith, was held Monday evening, March 23, at the Jewish Community Center. Miss Blanche Kirschenblum presided. Mrs. Arthur Rosenbluth, vice-president of the Women's District Lodge 1 gave an inspiring talk on the past achievements and the future plans of B'nai B'rith.

Concern for Youth

"B'nai B'rith has a great concern for youth because it realizes that in youth lies the magic key to Jewish survival. It therefore translates its concern into action through its services to young people at Hillel Foundations, in B'nai B'rith Youth organizations, Vocational Guidance and Scholarships," said Mrs. Rosenbluth.

Through its Anti-Defamation League program, the speaker continued, the organization has attempted to combat the enemies of our American way of life and to spread the teachings of better human relations in the community, the state and the country.

"B'nai B'rith women have contributed to institutions which care for the sick, the needy, the orphaned and the aged. Included in these are the Leo N. Levi Memorial Hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., the only hospital in the United States specializing in the treatment of arthritis, and The National Jewish Hospital for the care of tubercular patients. From the start this hospital has been non-sectarian and has for its motto: None can pay who enter. The need continues. The challenge is greater today than in the past. B'nai B'rith must be ready to build even greater towers of service," concluded Mrs. Rosenbluth.

Officers Elected

At the short business meeting which followed, the following officers were elected: President, Miss Blanche Kirschenblum; vice-presidents, Mrs. Milton Adler, Mrs. Reuben Leventhal and Mrs. Sam Davis; recording secretary, Mrs. Gilbert Adin; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Aaron Adin; treasurer, Mrs. Sam Barnovitz; trustees, Mrs. Herbert Powell, Mrs. Sam Gally and Mrs. Harold Mandell.

It was decided to award a scholarship of $100 to a Kingston High School graduate in June and to decorate a room in the Jewish Community Center. Delegates were chosen for the Up-state Convention and the District Convention.

Refreshments were served, following the meeting.

Mr. & Mrs. Samuel M. Stone cordially invite their friends and neighbors to attend the services at the Congregation Agudas Achim 9:30 a. m., Sat., March 28 at which time their son, Merrill, will be called to the altar in honor of his forthcoming marriage to Miss Shirley Samuels on Sunday, March 29

Rosendale Episcopal Church Sets Meeting

The annual meeting of All Saints Episcopal Church, Rosendale, scheduled for Monday, April 6, at 8:15 p. m., will be preceded by a parish pot-luck supper at 7 p. m.

Dodger Hurlers Push Scoreless String to 30 Straight Innings

Give Up Only 14 Hits in Four Tilts

(By The Associated Press)

Last year the one thing the Brooklyn Dodgers lacked was good pitching. This spring they're wallowing in it.

In their last four games Brooklyn pitchers have put together 30 consecutive scoreless innings during which they yielded only 14 hits—amazing figures for a team that won the 1952 pennant by clubbing the opposition to death.

Rookies Pace Staff

All the more impressive is the fact that more than half of these scoreless frames have come from rookies not even on the Brooklyn roster.

Glenn Mickens, a 22-year-old righthander with less than two seasons of organized ball, started the string last Saturday as he shut out the Boston Red Sox in the final three innings of an 8-4 victory.

Carl Erskine, the No. 1 starter, shut out the Philadelphia Athletics on two scrawny hits as he went all the way on Monday.

Lefthander Johnny Podres, a 20-year-old from the Montreal Royals, mowed down Montreal for seven scoreless stanzas Tuesday and Ron Negray, who came up from St. Paul late last season, continued the goose eggs in the final two.

Yesterday it was Bob Milliken, just out of the army, for six and relief ace Joe Black for three as the Dodgers edged the Milwaukee Braves, 1-0.

Mickens, Podres and Milliken still are minor league chattels and Mickens, regardless of his brilliant spring form, won't be available until at least May because he has to finish his two-year army hitch. He used a furlough to go to training camp in an effort to land a job although his previous experience is limited to a season at Billings, Mont., (Class C) and seven games at Ft. Worth (Class AA).

Another fine pitching job yesterday came from veteran Jim Konstanty of the Philadelphia Phils. He blanked Detroit, 7-0, on seven hits as the Tigers fell before a National League team for the first time this spring.

Bob Porterfield and Julio Moreno of Washington shut out the Red Sox for 10 innings as the Senators won, 4-0. The first run in the 10th came on a wide throw by shortstop Johnny Lipon and later Ken Wood homered with two on base.

Cards Pound 'Whip'

The St. Louis Cardinals won their fifth game in 17 spring starts, 7-1, against the New York Yankees. The first two St. Louis runs came off Johnny Sain, who worked the opening six innings, but most of the blasting was against Ewell Blackwell. Rookie Rip Repulski tripled with the bases loaded in the eighth, Red Schoendienst tripled in the ninth and Stan Musial homered inside the park in the same frame.

Three runs in the eighth inning off Frank Hiller gave the Chicago Whit Sox a 6-3 verdict over the New York Giants in the final spring meeting of the two clubs.

The St. Louis Browns evened their spring series with the Chicago Cubs at 2-2 as Don Larsen and Virgil Trucks set the Cubs down, 4-1, at Tucson. Johnny Groth tripled home two runs in the second inning.

Minor League outfits mopped up on the Philadelphia Athletics and Cleveland Indians. The A's bowed, 8-3, to Baltimore of the International League and Cleveland lost 6-2, to San Diego of the Pacific Coast Circuit.

Lewinski to Play

New York, March 26 (AP)—Norbert (Gooch) Lewinski, captain of the Notre Dame team the past season, will play with the college All-Star basketball squad in its coast-to-coast tour against the Harlem Globetrotters. The Globetrotters made the announcement today. Lewinski, a six-foot-four center who also plays forward, has been a Notre Dame regular for the last three years.

Training Camp News in Brief

Thompson Due Back Sunday

Proenix, Ariz., March 26 (AP)—Bobby Thomson, still nursing a broken hand, said today he hopes to get back in the New York Giants' lineup by Sunday. But where he will play remains a question.

"I'd like to use Bob at third," admitted Manager Leo Durocher, "but Davey Williams is going to fight like a wildcat for a job."

Yesterday Durocher used Williams, who is recovering from an aching back, at second base and rookie Daryl Spencer at third. If this combination works Thomson probably will return to centerfield where he finished last season.

St. Petersburgh, Fla., March 26 (AP)—Ewell Blackwell has had a rough time this spring in trying to win a pitching job with the New York Yankees but he may stick as a pinch hitter.

The "whip" was blasted by the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday and hasn't looked really good in any game. However, his hitting is another matter. He tripled off Al Brazle in his only time at bat yesterday and in his previous appearance at the plate he tripled against Philadelphia.

Pitching Impressive

Lakeland, Fla., March 26 (AP)—A 7-0 whitewashing from the Philadelphia Phillies looked bad on the Detroit Tigers' record today but it didn't say everything, by any means.

To the contrary, there were some good elements to the defeat—the pitching, for instance, of question-marks Ned Garver and Art Houtteman.

Sarasota, Fla., March 26 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox, held scoreless in their last 22 innings of Grapefruit League competition, travel to Orlando today for a return engagement with the Washington Senators.

The Red Sox suffered their second straight shutout while dropping a 4-0 decision to the Senators in 10 innings yesterday.

Big Guns Find Range

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 26 (AP)—The big guns are at work again for the St. Louis Cardinals. Stan (The Man)) Musial and Al (Red) Schoendienst, after a slow start, now appear to have the range.

Musial rapped out an inside-the-park home run to score behind Schoendienst, who had tripled, in a 7-1 victory yesterday over the New York Yankees. For Schoendienst, who collected four hits against the Yanks, it was his second triple in two days.

Lakeland, Fla., March 26 (AP)—Big Jim Konstanty, brilliant relief hurler of the pennant winning Philadelphia Phillies in 1950, gave up only six scattered hits yesterday as the Phils blasted the Detroit Tigers 7-0.

The "Cinderella" hurler, first Phils pitcher to go the distance this year, led the National League club to their third straight exhibition game.

Knicks Meet Celts Pistons-Lakers In Cage Playoffs

(By The Associated Press)

The New York Knickerbockers will try to make it two in a row over the Boston Celtics and the Fort Wayne Pistons face the defending champion Minneapolis Lakers tonight in the divisional playoffs of the National Basketball Association.

The Knick-Celtic game will be in Boston where the New Yorkers haven't won all season. So, even though they have a 1-0 lead in the best of five series, after licking the Celtics, 95-91, last night in New York, they'll still be the underdogs.

The Pistons have an unenviable task in Minneapolis. The Lakers, winners of the final playoffs against the Knicks last year, would be favored over any team in the league and Fort Wayne is no exception. George Mikan and Co., in fact, are looking ahead to the final series, so confident are they that they can lick the Pistons.

The Knicks pulled away in the third quarter after a 42 all tie in the half and at one juncture led by 13 points. In the final quarter, the Celtics kept chipping away at their deficit until, with about two minutes to play, they had pulled to within three points of the Knicks, 93-90. But time ran out on them.

New York and Chicago Glovers Meet Tonight

Status of Griffin Is Approved as Amateur

Chicago, March 26 (AP)—Golden Glovers from New York and Chicago uncoil their Sunday punches tonight in what promises to be the best slambang intercity bouts since the series started in 1928.

Both teams are equipped with knockout belters and a Chicago Stadium throng of 17,000 fans is expected to watch the leather fly.

The bouts also will be televised (Dumont network) and broadcast (Mutual) beginning at 9:30 p. m., EST.

New York has won five intercity titles while Chicago has taken 18. There were seven ties.

Griffin True Amateur

New York's chances were boosted yesterday when its heavyweight champion, Julius Griffin, was approved for competition by the Central Amateur Athletic Union. Griffin's amateur status previously had been challenged by the group.

Griffin and New York officials supplied proof that the boxer attended high school in 1949 and was not the "Julius Griffith" of Indianapolis who was boxing professionally in Indiana at that time.

Griffin, regestered as an 18-year-old cafeteria employe, left a trail of knockouts behind him in Eastern Golden Gloves competition. Tonight he will meet Chicago's heavyweight champion, Charles Liston of St. Louis.

Replacements for Chicago's flyweight titleholder, Pete Melendez of Fort Worth, and New York's were to be named today. Melendez is out with a cut eye and Davis did not make the trip.

Other Bouts

118 pounds—Dick Martinez (Chicago), Nashville, vs. James Lane, Huntington, W. Va.

Araujo Easily Defeats Davis, Awaits Title Shot

Tommy Collins gets his chance April 24 in Boston when he battles the champion, Jimmy Carter. Araujo has been promised a crack at the winner within 60 days.

Bloody Battle

Ranked No. 1 in the lightweight division, Araujo raked Davis with lightning lefts and smashing rights to the head. The steady pounding opened a cut over the Hartford, Conn. battler's right eye in the sixth round and blood streamed down his face and onto the canvas from then on.

At the end it was a question of whether Araujo's white trunks or Davis' face was a deeper crimson.

Except for an occasional right to his jaw, the Providence, R. I., boxer had little trouble with "Red Top," but he said he would have showed to better advantage "if Davis had fought more."

The unanimous verdict was 7-2-1 by Referee Tony La Brance, 8-2 by Judge Herb Williams and 7-3 by Judge Charlie Bill.

Araujo weighed 133½ to 133 for Davis.

When Ferris Fain won the American League batting title last year he became the sixth to win the league crown two years in a row.

Collins Moved to No. 2 Spot as Lightweight

Marciano, Walcott, Charles Lead Heavies

New York, March 26 (AP)—Tommy Collins of Boston has been moved from the No. 2 spot in the featherweight list of contenders to the same position among the lightweights in the new monthly ratings of Ring Magazine.

The hard-hitting Bostonian gets his chance to top all of the 135-pounders on April 24 when he meets champion Jimmy Carter in a title fight at Boston.

Ring editor Nat Fleischer said he shifted Collins to the heavier division because the fighter told him he can no longer make the featherweight limit (125 pounds) and because of Collins' success against lightweights. Tommy's victims include Lauro Salas, the former lightweight champ.

Georgie Araujo of Providence, R. I., who is supposed to get a shot at the Collins-Carter winner, held on to his No. 1 spot but the rest of the top ten was reshuffled. Behind Collins comes Paddy De Marco, Eddie Chavez, Johnny Gonsalves, Armand Savoie, Arthur King, Henry Davis and Frankie Johnson of England.

How Heavies Rank

The top heavyweights maintained their lofty perches but Bob Baker of Pittsburgh moved into the No. 5 spot and veteran Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland fell from fifth to 9th. After champion Rocky Marciano, Jersey Joe Walcott had top spot followed by Ezzard Charles and Roland La Staraz.

In the muddled middleweight division, England's Randy Turpin, Carl (Bobo) Olson of San Francisco, and France's Charles Humez and Pierre Langlois were continued in the 1-2-3-4 spots.

Ernie Durando of Bayonne, N. J., and Paddy Young of New York, who meet in a middleweight elimination Friday, were rated ninth and tenth because of their idleness. The winner unboubtedly will be moved into the first four in another month.

Graham Top Welter

Billy Graham of New York moved from second to first among the welters as a result of his victory over middleweight Joey Giardello (6th in the middles). Philadelphia's Gil Turner fell from first to second.

Former champion Willie Pep moved into Collins' vacated No. 2 berth in the featherweights with Teddie (Red Top) Davis of Hartford third and Ray Famechon fourth. Percy Bassett, the interim champ, is the No. 1 contender.

France's Robert Cohen took over the No. 1 position behind bantamweight champion Jimmy Carruthers with Vic Towell, the former titleholder, second and Pappy Gault, Spartanburgh, S. C., third.

Filipino Tanny Compo took over the No. 3 rung in the flyweight class from England's Jimmy Pierce. The latter dipped to fifth.

Named Polo Manager

New Haven, Conn., March 26 (AP)—Melvin Carroll of Garden City, N. Y., yesterday was named manager of the 1953-54 Yale polo team.

Managers to Talk

New York, March 26 (AP)—Television and its effect on boxing's small clubs, will be discussed here today by delegates of the International Boxing Managers Guild.

Red Wings Have Two Aims Against Bruins

Detroit, March 26 (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings will have two objectives when they meet the Boston Bruins in the second game of their Stanley Cup hockey series.

They hold a 1-0 edge in the best-of-seven, semi-final series and tonight they'll be trying to win again—naturally—but they'll be trying to win by a shutout.

A shutout victory would add two more records to their swelling list of team and individual records.

The victory would give them 10 straight playoff wins—something no other has accomplished.

And a shutout for goalie Terry Sawchuk would give him four straight playoff blankings—something which no other netminder has accomplished.

But Boston, humiliated all year by Detroit, will just settle for a win, any kind of win.

Dodger Hurlers Push Scoreless String to 30 Straight Innings

Give Up Only 14 Hits in Four Tilts

(By The Associated Press)

Last year the one thing the Brooklyn Dodgers lacked was good pitching. This spring they're wallowing in it.

In their last four games Brooklyn pitchers have put together 30 consecutive scoreless innings during which they yielded only 14 hits—amazing figures for a team that won the 1952 pennant by clubbing the opposition to death.

Rookies Pace Staff

All the more impressive is the fact that more than half of these scoreless frames have come from rookies not even on the Brooklyn roster.

Glenn Mickens, a 22-year-old righthander with less than two seasons of organized ball, started the string last Saturday as he shut out the Boston Red Sox in the final three innings of an 8-4 victory.

Carl Erskine, the No. 1 starter, shut out the Philadelphia Athletics on two scrawny hits as he went all the way on Monday.

Lefthander Johnny Podres, a 20-year-old from the Montreal Royals, mowed down Montreal for seven scoreless stanzas Tuesday and Ron Negray, who came up from St. Paul late last season, continued the goose eggs in the final two.

Yesterday it was Bob Milliken, just out of the army, for six and relief ace Joe Black for three as the Dodgers edged the Milwaukee Braves, 1-0.

Mickens, Podres and Milliken still are minor league chattels and Mickens, regardless of his brilliant spring form, won't be available until at least May because he has to finish his two-year army hitch. He used a furlough to go to training camp in an effort to land a job although his previous experience is limited to a season at Billings, Mont., (Class C) and seven games at Ft. Worth (Class AA).

Another fine pitching job yesterday came from veteran Jim Konstanty of the Philadelphia Phils. He blanked Detroit, 7-0, on seven hits as the Tigers fell before a National League team for the first time this spring.

Bob Porterfield and Julio Moreno of Washington shut out the Red Sox for 10 innings as the Senators won, 4-0. The first run in the 10th came on a wide throw by shortstop Johnny Lipon and later Ken Wood homered with two on base.

Cards Pound 'Whip'

The St. Louis Cardinals won their fifth game in 17 spring starts, 7-1, against the New York Yankees. The first two St. Louis runs came off Johnny Sain, who worked the opening six innings, but most of the blasting was against Ewell Blackwell. Rookie Rip Repulski tripled with the bases loaded in the eighth, Red Schoendienst tripled in the ninth and Stan Musial homered inside the park in the same frame.

Three runs in the eighth inning off Frank Hiller gave the Chicago Whit Sox a 6-3 verdict over the New York Giants in the final spring meeting of the two clubs.

The St. Louis Browns evened their spring series with the Chicago Cubs at 2-2 as Don Larsen and Virgil Trucks set the Cubs down, 4-1, at Tucson. Johnny Groth tripled home two runs in the second inning.

Minor League outfits mopped up on the Philadelphia Athletics and Cleveland Indians. The A's bowed, 8-3, to Baltimore of the International League and Cleveland lost 6-2, to San Diego of the Pacific Coast Circuit.

Lewinski to Play

New York, March 26 (AP)—Norbert (Gooch) Lewinski, captain of the Notre Dame team the past season, will play with the college All-Star basketball squad in its coast-to-coast tour against the Harlem Globetrotters. The Globetrotters made the announcement today. Lewinski, a six-foot-four center who also plays forward, has been a Notre Dame regular for the last three years.

Training Camp News in Brief

Thompson Due Back Sunday

Proenix, Ariz., March 26 (AP)—Bobby Thomson, still nursing a broken hand, said today he hopes to get back in the New York Giants' lineup by Sunday. But where he will play remains a question.

"I'd like to use Bob at third," admitted Manager Leo Durocher, "but Davey Williams is going to fight like a wildcat for a job."

Yesterday Durocher used Williams, who is recovering from an aching back, at second base and rookie Daryl Spencer at third. If this combination works Thomson probably will return to centerfield where he finished last season.

St. Petersburgh, Fla., March 26 (AP)—Ewell Blackwell has had a rough time this spring in trying to win a pitching job with the New York Yankees but he may stick as a pinch hitter.

The "whip" was blasted by the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday and hasn't looked really good in any game. However, his hitting is another matter. He tripled off Al Brazle in his only time at bat yesterday and in his previous appearance at the plate he tripled against Philadelphia.

Pitching Impressive

Lakeland, Fla., March 26 (AP)—A 7-0 whitewashing from the Philadelphia Phillies looked bad on the Detroit Tigers' record today but it didn't say everything, by any means.

To the contrary, there were some good elements to the defeat—the pitching, for instance, of question-marks Ned Garver and Art Houtteman.

Sarasota, Fla., March 26 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox, held scoreless in their last 22 innings of Grapefruit League competition, travel to Orlando today for a return engagement with the Washington Senators.

The Red Sox suffered their second straight shutout while dropping a 4-0 decision to the Senators in 10 innings yesterday.

Big Guns Find Range

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 26 (AP)—The big guns are at work again for the St. Louis Cardinals. Stan (The Man)) Musial and Al (Red) Schoendienst, after a slow start, now appear to have the range.

Musial rapped out an inside-the-park home run to score behind Schoendienst, who had tripled, in a 7-1 victory yesterday over the New York Yankees. For Schoendienst, who collected four hits against the Yanks, it was his second triple in two days.

Lakeland, Fla., March 26 (AP)—Big Jim Konstanty, brilliant relief hurler of the pennant winning Philadelphia Phillies in 1950, gave up only six scattered hits yesterday as the Phils blasted the Detroit Tigers 7-0.

The "Cinderella" hurler, first Phils pitcher to go the distance this year, led the National League club to their third straight exhibition game.

Knicks Meet Celts Pistons-Lakers In Cage Playoffs

(By The Associated Press)

The New York Knickerbockers will try to make it two in a row over the Boston Celtics and the Fort Wayne Pistons face the defending champion Minneapolis Lakers tonight in the divisional playoffs of the National Basketball Association.

The Knick-Celtic game will be in Boston where the New Yorkers haven't won all season. So, even though they have a 1-0 lead in the best of five series, after licking the Celtics, 95-91, last night in New York, they'll still be the underdogs.

The Pistons have an unenviable task in Minneapolis. The Lakers, winners of the final playoffs against the Knicks last year, would be favored over any team in the league and Fort Wayne is no exception. George Mikan and Co., in fact, are looking ahead to the final series, so confident are they that they can lick the Pistons.

The Knicks pulled away in the third quarter after a 42 all tie in the half and at one juncture led by 13 points. In the final quarter, the Celtics kept chipping away at their deficit until, with about two minutes to play, they had pulled to within three points of the Knicks, 93-90. But time ran out on them.

Collins Moved to No. 2 Spot as Lightweight

Marciano, Walcott, Charles Lead Heavies

New York, March 26 (AP)—Tommy Collins of Boston has been moved from the No. 2 spot in the featherweight list of contenders to the same position among the lightweights in the new monthly ratings of Ring Magazine.

The hard-hitting Bostonian gets his chance to top all of the 135-pounders on April 24 when he meets champion Jimmy Carter in a title fight at Boston.

Ring editor Nat Fleischer said he shifted Collins to the heavier division because the fighter told him he can no longer make the featherweight limit (125 pounds) and because of Collins' success against lightweights. Tommy's victims include Lauro Salas, the former lightweight champ.

Georgie Araujo of Providence, R. I., who is supposed to get a shot at the Collins-Carter winner, held on to his No. 1 spot but the rest of the top ten was reshuffled. Filipino Tanny Compo took over the No. 3 rung in the flyweight class from England's Jimmy Pierce. The latter dipped to fifth.

HELLGRAMMITE TIPS

HELLGRAMMITES CAN BE CARRIED IN A BAIT BOX PLACED IN A CREEL FOR COOLNESS. THEY KEEP BEST WITH SOME DAMPENED WATER PLANTS, GRASS OR LEAVES IN THE BOX.

MANY ANGLERS USE AN OLD ROTTEN LOG KEPT IN A DAMP CELLAR TO KEEP HELLGRAMMITES ALIVE, OFTEN FOR SEVERAL WEEKS. IN DRY CELLARS KEEP THE LOG COVERED WITH DAMP BURLAP.

BITS OF MOULDY WOOD AND DAMP GRASS KEEP THIS BAIT LIVELY FOR 3 OR 4 DAYS IN A TIN CAN.

Elliott Joins Browns

Tucson, Ariz., March 26 (AP)—Infielder Bob Elliott, a National League veteran of 14 years with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Boston Braves and New York Giants, yesterday signed a one-year contract with the St. Louis Browns.

Cleveland — The Cleveland Browns swapped 10 players to the Baltimore Colts for five in a trade felt to be a "big help" to both National Football League clubs.

The lowest average ever to win the batting title in the American League was .306 by Elmer Flick of Cleveland in 1905.

Dewey Signs Bills Affecting Hunters

Albany, March 26 (AP)—After June 30, it will be illegal to shoot a firearm across a public highway in New York state.

Gov. Dewey yesterday approved a bill to extend the ban throughout the state. It had been in effect only in Rockland county. The measure was introduced by Republican Sen. Walter Van Wiggeren of Herkimer.

The penalty could be a court fine of $10 to $100 and a civil penalty of $60 for each offense.

Other Van Wiggeren measures approved by the governor will:

Permit the owners of lessees of private property, of their families, to kill raccoons found damaging the property.

Allow the training of hunting dogs afield from Aug. 1 to April 1, instead of Sept. 1 to April 1.

Portland, Philly Keglers in Feature

Chicago, March 26 (AP)—Timber Structures of Portland, Ore., and Coca-Cola of Philadelphia feature team competition today in the American Bowling Congress tournament.

The Timber Structures team is the top outfit from the Pacific northwest while the Coca-Cola crew heads a strong Philadelphia delegation that numbers other teams with averages of around 1000.

Barron Machinery Company of Chicago yesterday made the big change in team standing as they took third in the Booster Division with 2815. That put them 37 pins behind the leading Frank's Jewelry of Chicago.

Everglades Tennis Goes Into Quarters

Palm Beach, Fla., March 26 (AP)—Men's singles quarter finals matches will be completed today in the Everglades Tennis tournament, together with third round mixed doubles and doubles matches.

Three-quarter finals matches on the singles program sent Vic Seixas of Philadelphia against Mike Green of Miami Beach; Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., against Harry Faccini of Bogota, Colombia; and Billy Talbert of New York against Tiny Vincent of Miami.

Second round matches Wednesday saw Vincent upset Gustavo Palofax of Mexico City, 5-7, 6-1, 7-5, and top-seeded Gardnar Mulloy beat Hank Osten of Miami Beach, 6-2, 6-1.

All Star Basketeers Rout Hurley, 71-55

Victor Locke scored 18 points to lead the Kingston All Stars to a 71-55 triumph over West Hurley.

The scores:

All Stars (71)—Maines, f, 8; Pangburn, f, 15; Locke, c, 18; Jackson, g, 10; Johnson, g, 14; Schenck, g, 6.

Kithcart Wins Second; Gatti Cops by Default

Eddie Kitchcart registered his second straight victory in the 118-pound Novice division of the annual Adirondack AAU Golden Gloves championships at Albany Wednesday night.

Phil Gatti, 160, the only other member of the Glasco Athletic Club to advance to the second round, won by default over an unidentified Amsterdam fighter who failed to make an appearance.

Both Kithcart and Gatti were presented with trophies following their victories Wednesday night at Odd Fellows Hall in Albany.

Ladies Laugh But The Males Cop Match

A report from the distaff camp attributed the Lumberettes' setback to excessive laughing.

"We just laughed too much," said a spokesman for the team, "and it must have affected our accuracy."

The levity, however, did not seriously crimp the style of the Lumberette anchor, Dot Flemings, who racked up a hefty 550 (199-180-171) and Capt. Eleanor Singer who socked 523.

Following the match, the losers treated the winners to a steak dinner at the Hamburger Paradise. About 25 persons attended.

MacPhail Has Weather Worry as Track Boss

Bowie, Md., March 26 (AP)—The weather was the main worry of Larry MacPhail today as the former baseball magnate-turned racetrack operator prepared to begin his second season at Bowie.

This cozy "track in the pines" of southern Maryland, where rain and mud gave MacPhail nightmares last fall, opens the major eastern racing season tomorrow.

Bowie is having a combined 31-day spring meeting with Laurel race course while the latter is getting a 2½ million dollar face lifting in the form of a swank new clubhouse.

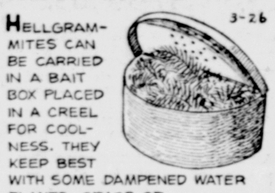
HELLGRAMMITE TIPS



HELLGRAMMITES CAN BE CARRIED IN A BAIT BOX PLACED IN A CREEL FOR COOLNESS. THEY KEEP BEST WITH SOME DAMPENED WATER PLANTS, GRASS OR LEAVES IN THE BOX. 3-26

MANY ANGLERS USE AN OLD ROTTEN LOG KEPT IN A DAMP CELLAR TO KEEP HELLGRAMMITES ALIVE, OFTEN FOR SEVERAL WEEKS. IN DRY CELLARS KEEP THE LOG COVERED WITH DAMP BURLAP.

BITS OF MOULDY WOOD AND DAMP GRASS KEEP THIS BAIT LIVELY FOR 3 OR 4 DAYS IN A TIN CAN.

Elliott Joins Browns

Tucson, Ariz., March 26 (AP)—Infielder Bob Elliott, a National League veteran of 14 years with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Boston Braves and New York Giants, yesterday signed a one-year contract with the St. Louis Browns.

Cleveland — The Cleveland Browns swapped 10 players to the Baltimore Colts for five in a trade felt to be a "big help" to both National Football League clubs.

The lowest average ever to win the batting title in the American League was .306 by Elmer Flick of Cleveland in 1905.

Dewey Signs Bills Affecting Hunters

Albany, March 26 (AP)—After June 30, it will be illegal to shoot a firearm across a public highway in New York state.

Gov. Dewey yesterday approved a bill to extend the ban throughout the state. It had been in effect only in Rockland county. The measure was introduced by Republican Sen. Walter Van Wiggeren of Herkimer.

The penalty could be a court fine of $10 to $100 and a civil penalty of $60 for each offense.

Other Van Wiggeren measures approved by the governor will:

Permit the owners of lessees of private property, of their families, to kill raccoons found damaging the property.

Allow the training of hunting dogs afield from Aug. 1 to April 1, instead of Sept. 1 to April 1.

Portland, Philly Keglers in Feature

Chicago, March 26 (AP)—Timber Structures of Portland, Ore., and Coca-Cola of Philadelphia feature team competition today in the American Bowling Congress tournament.

The Timber Structures team is the top outfit from the Pacific northwest while the Coca-Cola crew heads a strong Philadelphia delegation that numbers other teams with averages of around 1000.

Barron Machinery Company of Chicago yesterday made the big change in team standing as they took third in the Booster Division with 2815. That put them 37 pins behind the leading Frank's Jewelry of Chicago.

Everglades Tennis Goes Into Quarters

Palm Beach, Fla., March 26 (AP)—Men's singles quarter finals matches will be completed today in the Everglades Tennis tournament, together with third round mixed doubles and doubles matches.

Second round matches Wednesday saw Vincent upset Gustavo Palofax of Mexico City, 5-7, 6-1, 7-5, and top-seeded Gardnar Mulloy beat Hank Osten of Miami Beach, 6-2, 6-1.

Ladies Laugh But The Males Cop Match

The Kingston Lumber women lost their $100 challenge match to the Hamburger Paradise males by 222 pins—2609 to 2387.

A report from the distaff camp attributed the Lumberettes' setback to excessive laughing.

"We just laughed too much," said a spokesman for the team, "and it must have affected our accuracy."

The levity, however, did not seriously crimp the style of the Lumberette anchor, Dot Flemings, who racked up a hefty 550 (199-180-171) and Capt. Eleanor Singer who socked 523.

Big guns for the Paradise trundlers were Frank Bruno with 200-182-186 for 568 and Frank Spada 574 (192-169-213).

Eddie Kitchcart registered his second straight victory in the 118-pound Novice division of the annual Adirondack AAU Golden Gloves championships at Albany Wednesday night.

Phil Gatti, 160, the only other member of the Glasco Athletic Club to advance to the second round, won by default over an unidentified Amsterdam fighter who failed to make an appearance.

Both Kithcart and Gatti were presented with trophies following their victories Wednesday night at Odd Fellows Hall in Albany.

Leading the Glasco delegation again last night were Fred Davi, president of the Glasco Athletic Club and Tommy Zano of Woodstock, former professional boxer, trainer, referee and promoter.

MacPhail Has Weather Worry as Track Boss

Bowie, Md., March 26 (AP)—The weather was the main worry of Larry MacPhail today as the former baseball magnate-turned racetrack operator prepared to begin his second season at Bowie.

This cozy "track in the pines" of southern Maryland, where rain and mud gave MacPhail nightmares last fall, opens the major eastern racing season tomorrow.

Bowie is having a combined 31-day spring meeting with Laurel race course while the latter is getting a 2½ million dollar face lifting in the form of a swank new clubhouse.

2 Cleaners Union Officials Are Held For Extortion

New York, March 26 (AP)—Two officials of an AFL cleaners union were arrested yesterday on charges they tried to extort money from messenger services by threats to "organize" the messengers.

The defendants, Nicholas Leone, 31, of 1663 Meadowbrook Road, Merrick, N. Y., and Samuel Zakman, 39, of 127-20 161st street, Jamaica, Queens, were charged with six counts of extortion each, and one count each of attempted extortion, coercion and conspiracy. They were held without bail.

If convicted they could get prison terms of from seven and a half to 15 years on each extortion count, and lesser terms on the other counts.

District Attorney Frank S. Hogan said the pair got $8,000 from one messenger service, the Mercury Service System, Inc., and threatened 17 other firms that they would be run out of business if they did not pay up.

Cites Pickets, Phone Jams

Hogan said the men used picket lines and switchboard jamming tactics to harrass another firm, the Rapid Messenger Service, because the firm did not pay $150 monthly payments promised to Leone and Zakman in return for stopping their "organizing."

Hogan said part of the deal with the Rapid Messenger Service was that the two union men would stop organizing if the company would sign a one-year contract—which it would not be required to live up to.

Representatives of 16 other messenger services were summoned to a meeting by Leone and Zakman, Hogan said, and the pair threatened them with trouble if they did not pay up.

Hogan quoted Zakman as saying at the meeting: "We want to do it the friendly way, but if we have to, we'll do it the hard way."

Both Are Officers

Leone, according to Hogan, told the assembly that "You'll sign or I'll fracture each of you individually."

Leone and Zakman are secretary-treasurer and business manager respectively of a local of the AFL Amalgamated Miscellaneous Production and Cleaners Employes Union.

Hogan said for their drive against the messenger services they formed an independent union known as the "United Messengers Union."

Later, Hogan said, "through some magic" the two secured an AFL charter for the messengers union.

The ruby was the first of the precious stones to be synthesized on a commercial scale, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

DeKay Appointed YMCA Initial Gift Committee Head

George DeKay was appointed chairman of the initial gift committee for the YMCA fund campaign, April 23 to May 7, at a meeting of the board of directors Tuesday evening.

DeKay, who is connected with the public relations department of Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp., served as general chairman in the drive two years ago. He has been a member of the board of directors for a number of years.

The YMCA fund drive goal has been set at $22,500.

General Secretary Burton S. Tandy and Physical Director Lou Schafer reported briefly on YMCA operations and progress. It was pointed out that the total unpaid bills as of March 1 exceeded unpaid bills for the same date last year by $1,994.85.

Attending the meeting were Emil G. Boessneck, Robert C. Murray, Sr., Herman C. Schwenk, Lloyd R. LeFever, William O'Reilly, George Silkworth, Elmer Rylance, Clifford G. Smith and DeKay. President Chester A. Baltz presided and Smith served as secretary pro tem.

Loss of Old Baldy Not Serious Blow, Gen. Clark Says

Tokyo, March 26 (AP)—Gen. Mark Clark, UN Far East commander, said tonight he does not think the loss of Old Baldy on Korea's western front is a serious blow, but "it is always serious when we lose people."

The general arrived tonight from a 10-day swing through southeast Asia.

He told reporters there is no indication the Chinese assault foreshadows a spring offensive by the Communists.

Asked about a New York Times story that shiploads of artillery shells have been diverted from Korea to other parts of the world because ammunition is overflowing storage space in Korea, Clark answered:

"I know nothing of it."

"We're now in good shape on ammunition," he added.

Clark visited Manila, Hong Kong and Formosa, and took a four-day look at the war in Indochina, where the French and Vietnam forces have been battling Communist-led Vietminh groups for seven years.

He told newsmen that he would recommend increased aid to Indochina from the United States.

"You can't isolate this (Korean) conflict from the one in Indochina," Clark said.

Rifton Man Suffers Face Cuts in Collision

John Salmi, 60, of Rifton, was treated at Kingston Hospital for facial lacerations above his eyes received in a two-car collision on Route 213 near Rifton about 5 p. m. Wednesday, state police of Highland reported.

Troopers said Salmi was driving east when his automobile was in collision with one driven in the opposite direction by John M. Graham, 21, of Gardiner. The left front ends of both vehicles were damaged in the accident, which occurred on the winding section of the highway near the Dashville dam, according to the report. There was no arrest.

New York, March 26 (AP)—An oil-fed flash fire, burning on water, trapped three workmen on a scaffolding under Hudson River Pier 57 off 15th street today. Two of them perished, one was critically injured. The survivor said one of the three dropped an electric light bulb into an oil slick on the water and created a flash fire.

Report on Prices

Washington, March 26 (AP)—Retail prices as measured by the government dropped four-tenths of one per cent between mid-January and mid-February. It was the largest price decline in any month of the past year. Falling food prices were mainly responsible. The Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) said the retail price of food, clothing, housing and hundreds of other items bought by moderate income urban families was 113.4 per cent of the 1947-1949 average. With the figure at 113.4 for Feb. 15, the government's consumer price index has now declined for three consecutive months from a record peak reached last November.

Not Sure on Radiation

Salt Lake City, March 26 (AP)—A University of Utah nuclear physicist isn't convinced that the amount of radiation which passes over Utah following atomic blasts in Nevada is harmless. Dr. Lyle B. Borst, who spent several years with the Atomic Energy Commission, said yesterday he can't prove that the radiation is harmful, but added he is not convinced that anyone can say with finality that it is entirely safe. Borst said he has always worked on the theory that any unnecessary exposure to radiation is too much.

2 Cleaners Union Officials Are Held For Extortion

New York, March 26 (AP)—Two officials of an AFL cleaners union were arrested yesterday on charges they tried to extort money from messenger services by threats to "organize" the messengers.

The defendants, Nicholas Leone, 31, of 1663 Meadowbrook Road, Merrick, N. Y., and Samuel Zakman, 39, of 127-20 161st street, Jamaica, Queens, were charged with six counts of extortion each, and one count each of attempted extortion, coercion and conspiracy. They were held without bail.

If convicted they could get prison terms of from seven and a half to 15 years on each extortion count, and lesser terms on the other counts.

District Attorney Frank S. Hogan said the pair got $8,000 from one messenger service, the Mercury Service System, Inc., and threatened 17 other firms that they would be run out of business if they did not pay up.

Cites Pickets, Phone Jams

Hogan said the men used picket lines and switchboard jamming tactics to harrass another firm, the Rapid Messenger Service, because the firm did not pay $150 monthly payments promised to Leone and Zakman in return for stopping their "organizing."

Hogan said part of the deal with the Rapid Messenger Service was that the two union men would stop organizing if the company would sign a one-year contract—which it would not be required to live up to.

Representatives of 16 other messenger services were summoned to a meeting by Leone and Zakman, Hogan said, and the pair threatened them with trouble if they did not pay up.

Hogan quoted Zakman as saying at the meeting: "We want to do it the friendly way, but if we have to, we'll do it the hard way."

Both Are Officers

Leone, according to Hogan, told the assembly that "You'll sign or I'll fracture each of you individually."

Leone and Zakman are secretary-treasurer and business manager respectively of a local of the AFL Amalgamated Miscellaneous Production and Cleaners Employes Union.

Hogan said for their drive against the messenger services they formed an independent union known as the "United Messengers Union."

Later, Hogan said, "through some magic" the two secured an AFL charter for the messengers union.

The ruby was the first of the precious stones to be synthesized on a commercial scale, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Not Sure on Radiation

Salt Lake City, March 26 (AP)—A University of Utah nuclear physicist isn't convinced that the amount of radiation which passes over Utah following atomic blasts in Nevada is harmless. Dr. Lyle B. Borst, who spent several years with the Atomic Energy Commission, said yesterday he can't prove that the radiation is harmful, but added he is not convinced that anyone can say with finality that it is entirely safe. Borst said he has always worked on the theory that any unnecessary exposure to radiation is too much.

Former Resident, Now Missionary, To Speak Tonight

REV. LESTER FINLEY

The Rev. Lester Finley, who grew up in Kingston, and is now a missionary to India, will speak at the mid-week Lenten services in Trinity Methodist Church, Wurts and Hunter streets, tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Finley was born in Kingston, spent his boyhood here, and was graduated from Kingston High School in 1934. During high school days, he was a member of the football team, glee club, orchestra, and dramatics club. He was also active in the church school, Youth Fellowship and choir of Trinity Methodist Church.

Received Degree in '46

He was graduated from Springfield College in Springfield, Mass., with a bachelor of science degree in physical education. During college days he was on the varsity wrestling team, fencing squad, glee club and drama club. During the summers he served as playground director for the Kingston Department of Recreation.

After college, he served one year in the Flatbush Branch of the Brooklyn YMCA before deciding to go into the Christian ministry. He took his theological training at Drew University in Madison, N. J., where he was granted the Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1946.

During this period, the Rev. Mr. Finley had decided to go into the mission field. He attended Kennedy School of Missions in Hartford, Conn. in 1946 and 1947. He and Mrs. Finley were commissioned in 1947 by the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Church, and sailed for India the same year.

To Return in '54

Mr. and Mrs. Finley and their three children returned to America in December, 1952. At present, he is doing graduate work at Union Theological Seminary in New York. He and his family will be on furlough for 16 months, returning to India in March, 1954.

At the Lenten services tonight, the Rev. Mr. Finley will show colored slides of his work in India. The service will be of an informal nature, in the church school rooms, and opportunity will be given for discussion and asking questions.

The Rev. Mr. Finley will remain in Kingston over the weekend, with his mother, who lives at 16 Van Gaasbeck street. On Sunday morning, he will preach in the East Kingston and Glasco Methodist Churches, where Dr. Fred H. Deming is the pastor. The public is cordially invited to hear him tonight or on Sunday.

Legislators Hear Fluoridation as Topic by Dentists

Hartford, Conn., March 26 (AP)—A nation-wide battle waged among dentists on whether water fluoridation prevents tooth decay came to Connecticut's legislative halls yesterday.

Dentists from this state—supporters of fluoridation—argued their point with out-of-state dentists while the General Assembly's Public Health and Safety Committee sat back, listened and refereed.

The Connecticut group contended fluorine compounds used in water (not exceeding 1.3 parts per million) would never harm anyone's health and they would prevent tooth decay.

Out-of-state dentists—from New Jersey and Massachusetts—argued fluoridated drinking water does not immediately show its harm. It will harm your grandchildren, they claimed.

There is no law in Connecticut prohibiting fluoridation of water supplies, and one city—New Britain—has been using it for two years.

The question before the committee, said Sen. Benton H. Grant (R-Stamford), committee chairman, is whether fluoridation should be regulated or prohibited.

Backed by Health Office

Among the backers of fluoridation were the State Health Department and the Connecticut State Dental Association.

Speaking against it were Dr. Robert J. H. Mick, a research dentist of Laurel Springs, N. J.; and two Tufts Medical School faculty members, Dr. Max Ginns and Dr. Leonard Elsky, both of Worcester, Mass.

The latter group was introduced by Miss Lillian Van deVere of Hartford, who charged Connecticut dentists were afraid to speak against fluoridation because the State Health Department favored it.

Dr. Mick said that people can take fluorine into their systems with no apparent ill effect, "but something will happen to your grandchildren."

Changed After Experiment

He said he favored fluoridation until his experience treating natives in Africa and animal experiments changed his mind.

Actually, he contended, it was not the fluorine in water that built up bone structure but rather mineral solids naturally present in fluoridated water.

Similiarly, Dr. Ginns maintained that "the benefits attributed to fluorides are not due to fluorides at all, but to better nutrition and hygiene."

Dr. Elsky warned the effects of drinking fluorine compounds "will not be known for a long time."

A Hartford dentist, Dr. Frank Cassidy, testified that opposition was characteristic of the opposition that greeted other "milestones of public health" like vaccination, pasteurization and chlorination of water supplies.

They and other dentists cited various authorities which said small amounts of fluoride compounds had been proved harmless to health.

Miller Fined $10

Stephan Miller, 17, of 130 O'Neil street, who was arrested March 20 on charges that he drove a car with a faulty muffler and had no proof of insurance as required for junior operators, was fined $10 by City Judge Raymond J. Mino today. The faulty muffler charge was withdrawn and the fine was on a plea of guilty to the other charge. His license was also suspended for 60 days. Attorney Vincent G. Connelly appeared for him.

Jersey GOP Solons Continue Apathy for Driscoll Program

Trenton, N. J., March 26 (AP)—Republicans in the New Jersey Legislature are reluctant to come right out and say they have quit taking directions from Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll, but they act that way.

In four meetings since March 16, when they returned from a month-long vacation, the legislators have done little or nothing about bills high on the Driscoll agenda.

Assembly members and senators showed continuing apathy yesterday toward the governor's program. Several senators were openly hostile to a Driscoll plan to integrate county judges into the Superior Court system. The governor has said integration was the most important matter before this year's Legislature.

Many Republican assemblymen said they would go along with the integration plan, but it is the Senate that counts in this case. All county judges must have their appointments approved by the Senate—a highly significant step in party patronage. If the county judges were put into the Superior Court, they would become life members of the bench upon reappointment.

Both Houses are to meet again at 2 p. m. next Monday. The Senate quit last night at 6:30 p. m. and the Assembly three hours later. Between them, they approved almost 100 bills. All but a few were minor in nature.

The apathy toward the Driscoll program appeared to spring from two sources:

1. The normal reaction a governor can expect during his last year in office.

2. An attitude of watchful waiting for the outcome of a legislative investigation into the firing of Crime Investigator Nelson F. Stamler by Attorney General Parsons.

Driscoll accepts No. 1 somewhat, but feels his program deserves legislative approval nonetheless.

Of No. 2, there is little or nothing Driscoll can do about it. Like everyone else in the party, the governor knows the inquiry can have repercussions on the April 21 primary election and in the more important campaign for governor that follows.

Significant Bills Okayed

The two on Driscoll's desk are:

1. A bill transferring responsibility for a proposed Cape May to Lewes, Dell., ferry from the highway department to the Highlaw authority, which was formed to construct and operate the Garden State Parkway from Bergen County to Cape May.

2. A bill requiring a special licensed for operators of trailer trucks. Driscoll has said modern heavy transportation trucks require special knowledge to operate safely. The bill would require a special examination for drivers seeking trailer truck licenses.

Would Amend Licensing

The other bill was one that amends the present law on chiropractic licensing. It was passed by the Assembly and sent to the Senate, which had a bill of its own. The Assembly bill was drawn up by the State Medical Board in cooperation with the Depratment of Health. Among provisions, the bill specifies a written examination for a license.

One group of chiropractors in the state is violently opposed to the bill on grounds it is sponsored by the medical profession in an effort to hamstring chiropractors.

Senate President David Young, III (R. Morris), sponsor of the Senate bill, said his proposal "does not have quite enough support yet" in his house to pass. He said the bill was considered in a private conference of Republican majority senators.

Many Republican assemblymen said they would go along with the integration plan, but it is the Senate that counts in this case. All county judges must have their appointments approved by the Senate—a highly significant step in party patronage. If the county judges were put into the Superior Court, they would become life members of the bench upon reappointment.

Both Houses are to meet again at 2 p. m. next Monday. The Senate quit last night at 6:30 p. m. and the Assembly three hours later. Between them, they approved almost 100 bills. All but a few were minor in nature.

The apathy toward the Driscoll program appeared to spring from two sources:

1. The normal reaction a governor can expect during his last year in office.

2. An attitude of watchful waiting for the outcome of a legislative investigation into the firing of Crime Investigator Nelson F. Stamler by Attorney General Parsons.

Of No. 2, there is little or nothing Driscoll can do about it. Like everyone else in the party, the governor knows the inquiry can have repercussions on the April 21 primary election and in the more important campaign for governor that follows.

Significant Bills Okayed

Three significant bills received legislative approval, two of them going to the governor for his signature.

The two on Driscoll's desk are:

1. A bill transferring responsibility for a proposed Cape May to Lewes, Del., ferry from the highway department to the Highlaw authority, which was formed to construct and operate the Garden State Parkway from Bergen County to Cape May.

2. A bill requiring a special licensed for operators of trailer trucks. Driscoll has said modern heavy transportation trucks require special knowledge to operate safely. The bill would require a special examination for drivers seeking trailer truck licenses.

Would Amend Licensing

The other bill was one that amends the present law on chiropractic licensing. It was passed by the Assembly and sent to the Senate, which had a bill of its own. The Assembly bill was drawn up by the State Medical Board in cooperation with the Depratment of Health. Among provisions, the bill specifies a written examination for a license.

One group of chiropractors in the state is violently opposed to the bill on grounds it is sponsored by the medical profession in an effort to hamstring chiropractors.

Senate President David Young, III (R. Morris), sponsor of the Senate bill, said his proposal "does not have quite enough support yet" in his house to pass. He said the bill was considered in a private conference of Republican majority senators.
